Editor's Page

As the last pages go into this 1956 Beaver, I can't help reviewing the many, many hours that have gone into production of the book. Time spent has been divided between many persons and many different jobs.

As editor I have merely been a director—the real work has been done by those individual "Beavers" putting in the research, pictures and copy that make the book what it is. Without this large staff, we would not be able to present this Beaver to you.

I wish space permitted me to name all of those on the staff, but thanks will have to be limited to a few. Biggest help in production of the Beaver has been Virginia Ramsay, who in addition to associate editors duties, took over the clubs and honoraries section.

The new record, one of the features of our book, has been produced with the help of Harold M. Livingston, professor of speech, Bob Ewalt and Sandy Wilson. To them, and others in the speech department, go my special thanks.

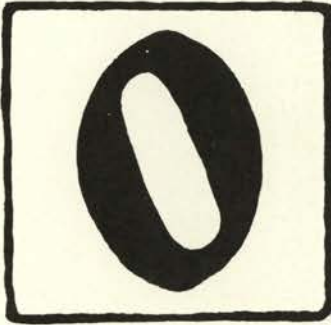

Jeri Keene deserves special recognition for her job in producing the art for this issue. To Tam Moore, who wrote a large share of the copy that ties together the pictures, goes another thank you.

And last, but certainly not the most unimportant are kudos to C. L. McAllister and all of the persons at Abbott, Kerns and Bell Printing Company. Without their cooperation on missed deadlines and understanding of mixups, we could not bring you this '56 Beaver.

VOLUME I

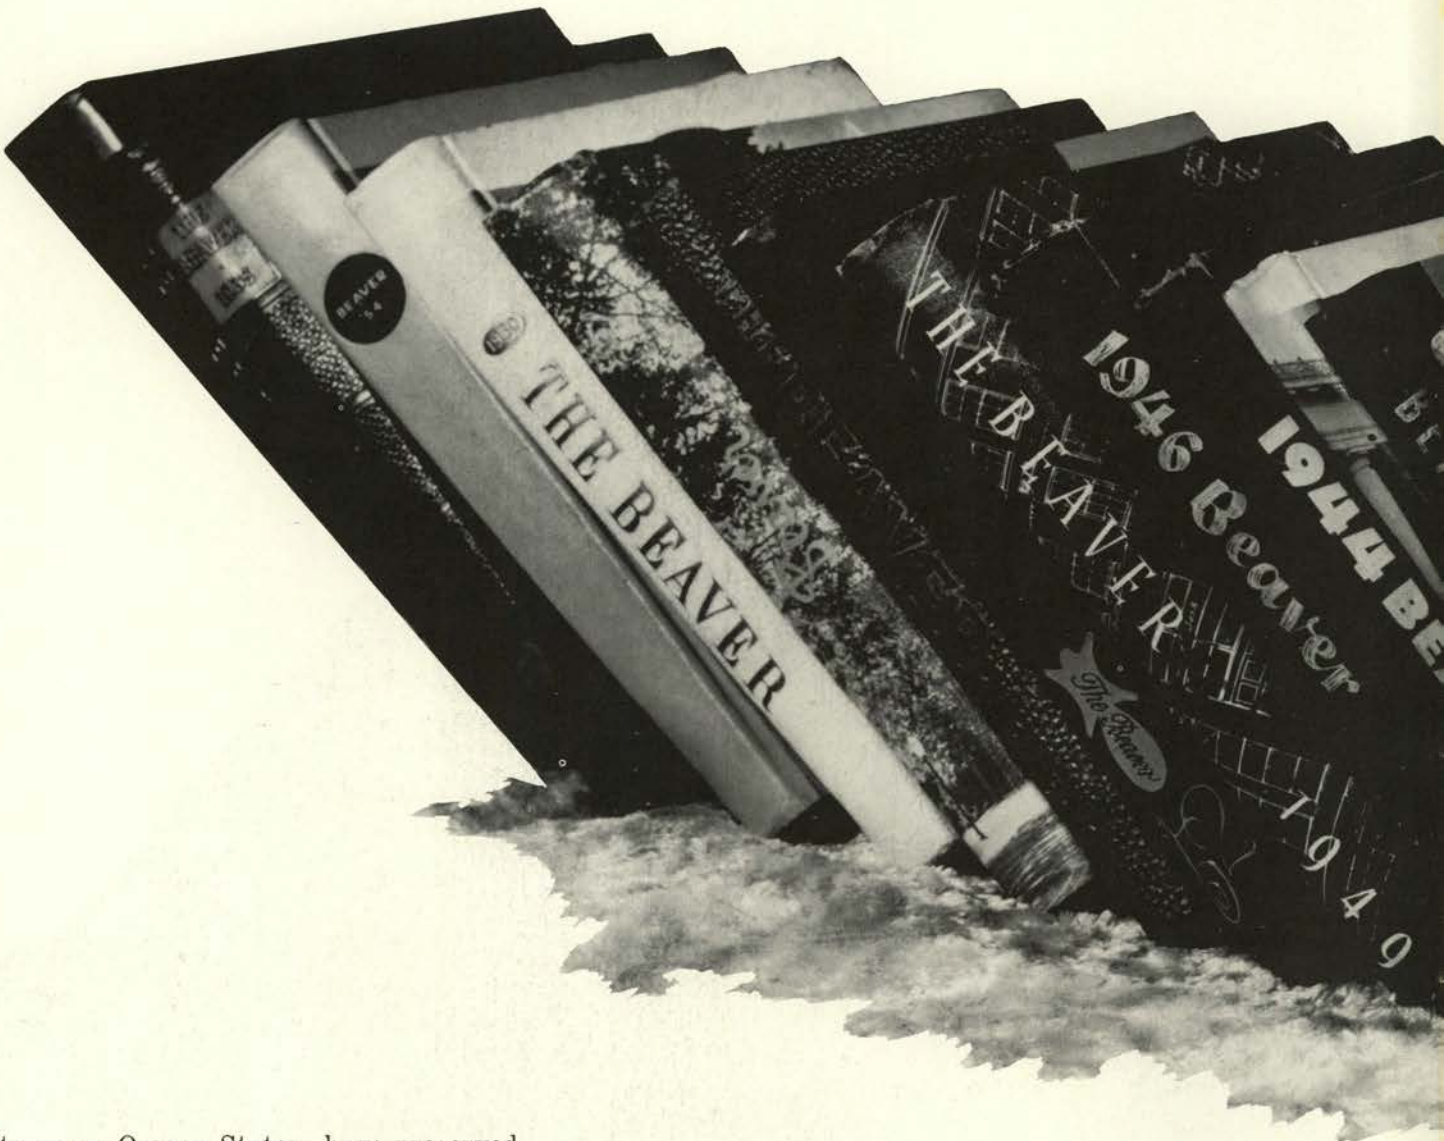

The '08

Orange

OAC

1907

For fifty years Oregon Staters have preserved the memories of college days through a publication of pictures and words. The '56 Beaver enters on these pages the original yearbook of Oregon State College, the Orange.

Preface

IN PRESENTING this volume to the public for consideration, the Junior Class of the O. A. C. is simply keeping abreast with the spirit of the day. These books, containing impressions of student life, are published annually by the Junior classes throughout the country. For some time we felt the necessity of such an enterprise in our College and consequently undertook the task, the results of which we will leave as a heritage to the classes to come.

In this volume we have endeavored, according to the light given us, to depict the scenes and objects which our class has learned to love; and to relate occurrences and incidents connected with the history of the institution, sometimes in song, but oftener in story. We have attempted conscientiously to present to you, our kind reader, a faithful record of our struggles and achievements, our deeds and misdeeds, our successes and failures on whatever field of endeavor they may have come to us.

We have set out to do our best, and to give fair value and impartial consideration. Should you meet with imperfections, however, or discover shortcomings, we pray you to be lenient and indulgent in your criticism. We had to follow untried paths where snags and hidden obstacles may sometimes have diverted us from our true course. But whatever delinquencies may be discovered or whatever remissions we may be charged with, kind reader, remember they are of the head and not of the heart.

In 1907 the Junior Class of Oregon State College compiled an annual of the year's events called the "Orange." The "Orange" continued until 1917 when the name was changed to the "Beaver." Two editions were presented in 1926-27, one by the Junior Class, and the other by the associated students. Since 1928 the "Beaver" has been the official publication of the associated students of Oregon State College.

PRESIDENT A. L. STRAND

DEAN E. B. LEMON

Dean E. B. Lemon, chief administrative officer under the President, is responsible for the coordination and correlation of schools and departments of the college.

ADMINISTRATION

PRESIDENT A. L. STRAND

President A. L. Strand works with faculty and students in shaping educational policies of Oregon State College.

DEAN OF WOMEN

Helen S. Moor, Dean of Women

The primary concern of the Dean of Women's office is the welfare of the women students. Miss Moor and Dr. Simerville are always willing to counsel students in personal problems and group affairs.

Secretaries, Mrs. Vida Bower and Mrs. Merthel McConnel play an important part in maintaining an efficient office.

Dr. Clara L. Simerville, newly appointed Assistant Dean of Women.

DEAN OF MEN

Dean Dan Poling and L. E. Darlington take interest in social and academic affairs on campus along with aiding students with personal problems.

Dan W. Poling, Dean of Men

L. E. Darlington, Assistant Dean of Men

ADMINISTRATORS

Merlin Brown, IBM Supervisor, and Dr. D. T. Ordeman, Registrar, examine the IBM machine introduced to simplify registration and grade reports.

The registrar is responsible for the establishment, administration, and maintenance of routines dealing with admissions, registration, records, and statistics. He furnishes information to other administrative officials dealing with the responsibilities in their fields, and cooperates with high schools, Veterans Administration, Selective Service, and other off-campus agencies.

Dallas W. Norton, Personnel Coordinator

G. M. Robertson, Business Manager

LIBRARY DIRECTORS

The librarians and student staff administer the prompt placement of books, documents, maps, pictures, or films into the hands of the undergraduate, the graduate student, the faculty member, or the research worker insofar as possible at any time.

William Carlson, Library Director, reads one of the many rare books kept in the MacDonald Room of the college library.

Rodney Waldren, Administrative Assistant, glances through the books in the main stacks.

PHYSICAL PLANT

Richard Adams, Superintendent of the Physical Plant

The Physical Plant on the Oregon State college campus is a service organization. Its business is to maintain and operate the physical facilities of the institution. Another important function is to act as college representative throughout all phases of new and major construction.

CAMPUS POLICE

Guy Stover, Campus Police Chief

Under the supervision of Police Chief Guy Stover the nine men on the campus patrol are responsible for law enforcement on the Oregon State campus.

STUDENT LIFE

The Student Life committee supervises student organizations and activities other than student body activities that are not under the jurisdiction of the Intercollegiate Athletic Board and Educational Activities Board.

ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

Deans, directors, and other administrative officials are appointed by the president to form the administrative council. The primary concern of the council is the coordination of administrative activities.

Front row: Dallas Norton, Dean Hansen, Dean Poling, Dean Moor, Dean School, Colonel Heston, President Strand, Dean Lemon, D. M. Goode. Second row: Dean Zeran, Colonel Knapp, Dean Gleeson, Morris Robertson, Dr. Langton, Dean Gilfillan. Back row: Dean Maser, Dr. Ordeman, Dean Crossen, Dean McCulloch, W. T. Cooney, Dean Colby.

EDUCATIONAL ACTIVITIES

Dr. Theo Yerian and Irwin Harris, manager educational activities.

Mrs. Ruth Herndon, secretary.

Student publications, music groups, forensics, concerts, and lectures are the general divisions of the Educational Activities department. The department also serves as a bookkeeping agency and advisory office for many other student groups.

Educational Activities Board: Hank Gagnon, Mrs. Herndon, Irwin Harris, Dr. Yerian, Jim Lattie, Bill Strader, Janet Skinner.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The alumni office in the Memorial Union is the center of organization for reunions, alum homecoming, activities, forming new clubs, and acting as a clearing house for establishing alum groups. Promotion of OSC is one of the major activities of the office.

Bob Knoll, manager alumni association and Ted Carlson, assistant director.

MOTHER'S CLUB

The Oregon State college Mother's Club was formed for the main purpose of providing benefits for OSC students. Membership is open to all mothers of students, and any other person interested in the welfare of OSC and its students.

MRS. S. W. McHUGH, president

MRS. SPENCER ALEXANDER,
vice-president

MRS. ELMORE HILL, secretary

MRS. B. G. DICK, treasurer

ALBERT BAUER, president

DAD'S CLUB

The purpose of the Oregon State college Dad's Club is to preserve the traditions and insure the future usefulness of the institution. The club is composed of fathers and male guardians of students attending OSC. The club has brought wide recognition to Oregon State throughout the west coast. The annual meeting is held winter term when new officers are elected.

URSEL C. NARVER, vice-president

JAMES L. HEILIG, secretary

A. W. TRIMBLE, treasurer

SCHOOLS AND DEANS

Academic work attracted most of OSC's students to the institution, and to the schools and their deans has been entrusted the task of carrying out the college's classroom and research program.

AGRICULTURE

The student in agriculture has a choice in the eight major fields which include agricultural research, related agricultural industries, agricultural business, education, communication, conservation, inspection and related services, and of course, farming and ranching.

At present our land grant agricultural colleges graduate about 8,500 young men and women in agricultural sciences to fill the 15,000 jobs.

You can train at Oregon State College for any one of the many opportunities in technical agriculture, related business, or specialized farming.

E. F. Price, Dean of Agriculture

An agriculture major weighing cottage cheese in Withycombe Hall

A student exhibits his finished product to instructor in the jelly lab of the food technology building.

An instructor points out the importance of the monoliths on exhibit in the agriculture building.

BUSINESS AND TECHNOLOGY

Business and technology is unique in that it is the only school of business in the country which combines business administrative training with all phases of technology. It has undertaken as its task the training for administration and management in the industrial fields and for firms which distribute and service industrial products. It fills a demonstrated need in the contemporary American industrial society.

Equally significant is its Department of Secretarial Science, the largest and perhaps best equipped of its kind in the west. Also Business and Technology prepares high school teachers of commercial subjects.

Clifford E. Maser, Dean of Business and Technology.

A couple of girls majoring in secretarial science.

EDUCATION

All professional preparation for teaching within the state system of higher education is organized under the school of education. Students may prepare for teaching in the elementary school and the following fields at the secondary level: agriculture, biological science, home economics, industrial arts, mathematics, physical education, physical science, and approved combinations of subjects, and for educational and vocational guidance.

Supervised practice teaching is done by all education majors under the guidance of certified teachers in high school and elementary schools in the Willamette Valley.

F. R. Zeran, Dean of Education

A panel discussion in American School Systems.

Practice teaching, a senior requirement.

Hand puppets from colored paper for art in elementary schools.

Rhythm and Dance class adds a bit of strenuous physical activity.

ENGINEERING

Oregon State's school of engineering is the biggest on the campus and one of the best in the nation, having curricula in general, civil, chemical, electrical, metallurgical, mining, industrial administration and industrial arts education engineering provide a wide range of study in the engineering field. All departments are fully accredited.

Dean George W. Gleason, Dean of Engineering

A group of mechanical engineers take reading as the strength of a block of wood is tested.

An instructor carries on an experiment in chemical engineering.

A student watches while an instructor adjusts machinery.

FORESTRY

Forestry is big business on the west coast and it is the biggest business in Oregon, where it provides half the industrial employment. To educate men for careers in this field, the School of Forestry offers three major programs: Forest Engineering, Forest Management, and Forest Products.

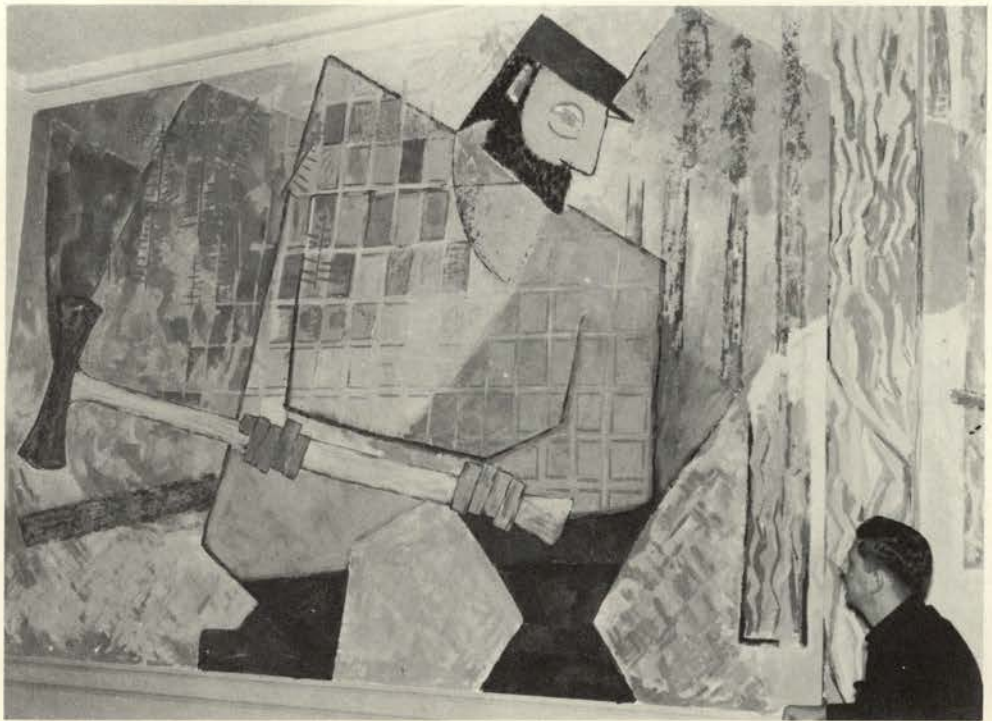

Foresters today are helping the public agencies and the forest industry to grow more wood, harvest more wood, and use wood more completely and profitably. This will assure a future not only for the graduate but for forestry in Oregon.

W. F. McCulloch, Dean of Forestry

An instructor points out various types of Western Oregon Woods to interested students.

HOME ECONOMICS

The School of Home Economics at Oregon State ranks as one of the foremost schools of Home Ec in the nation. It is designed to prepare girls for a career or managing one's own home.

In order to provide for differing interests of students, three curricula towards baccalaureate degrees are offered:

Curriculum A is for those who wish to prepare for homemaking, home economics teaching, nursery school teaching, social work, extension, commercial, and other earning fields related to home economics.

Curriculum B is for professional work in hospital dietetics, institution management, foods and nutrition, also fields listed under Curriculum A.

Curriculum C is planned for students who wish to pursue a general program during their freshman and sophomore years with emphasis of Home Economics in their junior and senior years. It is also for students who transfer into Home Economics after two years of college study.

Miss Miriam G. Scholl, Dean of Home Economics

A practical course in nursery school.

A course in designing your own clothes.

Some experimenting with a few cakes.

A foods class checking temperatures.

R.O.T.C.

Oregon State College has three important divisions of Reserve Officer Training Corp. Military Science and tactics commanded by Colonel Ernest C. Napp; Air Science commanded by Colonel LeRoy G. Heston, and Naval Science commanded by Captain Daniel B. Miller.

The instruction and training in Military Science and tactics provides students for a commission in the regular or reserve components of four branches in the Army.

Students in the Naval ROTC, upon graduation, are commissioned ensigns in the U. S. Navy or second lieutenants, U. S. Marine Corps, services two or three years on active duty, depending on their undergraduate status.

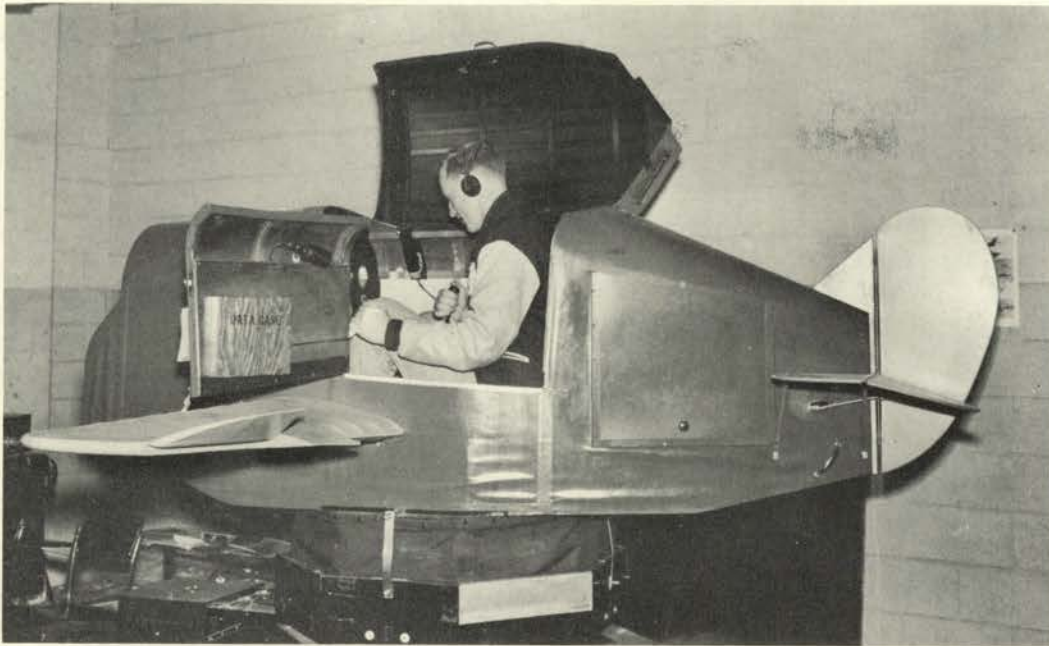

The instruction in Air Science equips men to become observers, pilots, and to become executive officers in the Air Force. Upon graduation, they become second lieutenants to serve in the Air Force for three or four years.

Captain Daniel B. Miller, Colonel LeRoy G. Heston, Colonel Ernest C. Napp.

ROTC students cleaning their weapons.

A student getting ready for an experimental flight.

ROTC instructor giving students information about their equipment.

A little drill for the NROTC.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

All instruction and related activities in the fields of health, physical education, and recreation are administered by the division of physical education.

Professional preparation is offered in physical education, coaching, hygiene, sanitation, health education, recreation, youth agency leadership, pre-occupational therapy, pre-physical therapy, camping and the dance. A side selection of graduate work is available to advanced students in these fields.

The Division offers programs designed to meet the physical and recreational needs of the college community. Offerings in a wide selection of individual, dual, and team sports; remedial work in fitness and posture; and a varied intramural sports program.

Dr. Clair V. Langton, head of Physical Education.

A small group of advanced horse back riders.

Archers in good form.

Body building for the fellas.

PHARMACY

Oregon State College School of Pharmacy is fully accredited and is rated as a class A college by the American Council on Pharmaceutical Education. Its curriculum, of five years' duration, is designed to give the student a sound general education as well as to train him for all positions in the profession of pharmacy.

Under the provisions of the public health laws of the several states, it is required that the pharmacist be licensed before he is permitted to compound and supply drugs and medicines on the prescriptions of doctors, dentists and veterinarians. The principal prerequisites to a license is the graduation from an accredited school of pharmacy.

Dean of Pharmacy, George E. Crossen

Future pharmacists learn the techniques of mixing compounds.

A pharmacy student is shown filling a capsule.

Two students learn the importance of accurate measurement in the pharmacy profession.

An instructor in pharmacy checks on the work of her students.

SCIENCE

The School of Science at Oregon State College is designated as the State's center of education and research in science fields. Instruction in biology, chemistry, geology, mathematics, and physics, is given not only to science majors, but to students in the professional schools of Agriculture, Business, Education, Engineering, Forestry, Home Economics, and Pharmacy, as well as to students entering careers in medicine, dentistry, and nursing.

This has made necessary the largest and best-equipped science staff in the State. Oregon's only cyclotron, seismograph, and large electronic microscope are all found on the Oregon State Campus.

F. A. Gilfillin, Dean of Science

A group of geology students examine various rock specimens.

A meteorologist takes a reading from the weather instruments located on the roof of the physics building.

A photographer places his prints on the dryer.

LOWER DIVISION

Non-specialized education at Oregon State College is centered in the Lower Division of Liberal Arts. It offers a two-year curriculum of liberal studies. The Lower Division serves students who wish a broad general education for cultural value and preparation for intelligent citizenship, or students who expect to specialize later in some field of arts and letters or social science.

It provides lower and upper division courses to meet the needs of those enrolled in the technical and professional activities in art, music, journalism, dramatics, and public speaking which enrich the college years and prepare for a fuller life.

Impersonations in an interpretative speech class.

Students working on interesting studies in oil.

GRADUATE

The chief functions of the graduate school are to train students in research, scholarship, and teaching. Students working on Masters or Doctorate degrees make arrangements with the graduate school.

All incoming publicity pertaining to graduate study and summer courses of other colleges and universities is handled by the graduate school.

H. P. Hansen, Dean of Graduate Students.

Graduate students photographing cell divisions for further study.

Research being carried on about chinchilla reproduction.

A graduate recording information obtained from specialized equipment.

SENIORS

It wasn't so long ago that the class of 1956 was wearing green, but Oregon State college has transformed them from Rookies into mature graduates who are proud of their alma mater and a credit to it.

MARV SMITH, President

More than 1700 enthusiastic freshmen entered OSC imbued with the idea of making the class of '56 a marked success. The traditional activities were participated in and appreciated only as a freshman class can. The annual picking up paw-paws, rook dance, the bonfire and the burning of the green made the first year pass quickly.

1955-56 was the beginning of an eventful year leading to the long anticipated date of graduation. To the seniors the last year has been the most outstanding. President Marv Smith guided some 700 seniors to a successful year of activities. The seniors carved their names on the senior table leaving them for posterity, and had their last big blow of the year at the annual class steak fry. These activities were followed by baccalaureate service and the conferring of degrees on June 4.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

GOVERNMENT

Heart of extracurricular activities and public relations center for the student body, the Associated Students of Oregon State College put in a busy year in 1955-56. From the student body president down to the lowest secretary, efficient work made a good name for the college.

JOHNNIE RICE, president

ASOSC PRESIDENT

Pill-pushing Johnnie Rice, wading through the mountainous student body leadership jobs as well as finishing his final year in the school of pharmacy, has earned the distinction of carrying out all of the major planks in his election platform. The "smiling racoon" of student government led the associated students' senate through a year of problems and progress. Johnnie has also represented the students as a member of the Memorial Union board of directors and governors, the alumni board of directors, and the intercollegiate athletics board.

ASOSC OFFICERS

Taking over the vice-presidency in October, Nick Kirkmire picked up the reins of election committee leadership and the task of student body administrative assistant. Other jobs included the student life committee, freshman elections, and coordination of living group social chairmen.

Scholarly Linda Courtney, the lone junior in the student body office, filled the second vice-president's chair and headed up the ASOSC senate service committee.

Patty Fitzwalter spaced her duties as student body secretary between a student teaching stint and other campus activities. As office manager, she directed the student body receptionists and handled ASOSC administrative details.

Fiscal records of the associated students were one of the minor worries of treasurer Lynn Bennett. In addition to the $500 ASOSC budget, he served on the educational activities board of directors with its $93,200 job of financing almost all student functions outside of athletics.

BOB EWALT, president

MEMORIAL UNION

Meeting place for thousands of off-campus visitors and center of student activities, the Memorial Union filled a big place in collegiate life for 1955-56. Under the able leadership of President Bob Ewalt and the advice of Manager Ed Allworth and Program Consultant Mrs. Tracy Johnson, the M.U. carried out its function of host for the college and servant to student groups.

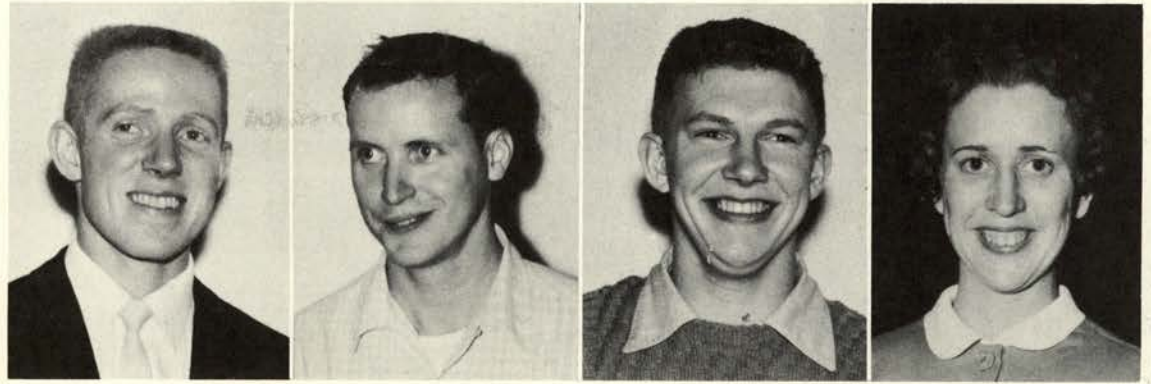

Committees for hospitality, art, exhibits, toastmaster, radio, games and recreation, toastmistresses, music, photography, public relations, dancing, and social education fill in the main areas of M.U. endeavor. They are coordinated through the board of directors, made up of student and faculty members.

Associated Women Students

JANET SKINNER assumed the position of presidency of Associated Women Students, an organization of every woman on OSC's campus. Her outstanding leadership helped many women find a place in AWS activities. This year's activities were geared to meet academic and social desires of the women students. Emphasis fall term was placed on scholarship, while during winter term the emphasis was on activities. Legislative council, which is the representative group of women students, directs and coordinates the many women's activities on campus. Students board of reference is the judicial governing body of women students. The main activities of the year include the annual Nickel Hop, "Activity Avenue," a carnival held after the Oregon State-Idaho basketball game, football and basketball convo, and editing of the Coed Code.

JANET SKINNER, AWS president

AWS Executive Council

Standing: Dorothy Eddy, Jackie Dashney, Ann Munford, Mary Meier, Dean Moor. Seated: President Janet Skinner.

Student Board of Reference

Seated: Barbara Custer, Carol Blatchford, Dean Moor, Sue Pearson, Janet Harpham. Standing: Linda Courtney, Marian Hoard, Sue Schwind and Violet Wong.

AWS Officers

ASOSC SENATE

The "Wednesday sack lunch club" was the heart of student government action. Senators from each school and ASOSC-connected organizations debated current student body problems and plans almost weekly on the senate floor. The legislators put teeth in elections rules, started movement for a change in convocation hour and put ASOSC financing on a sounder basis during the year.

Handy with a typewriter and shorthand pad, senate secretary Marilyn Hewitt chronicled the record of each meeting. She also supervised duplicating and distributing of the minutes to each senator after every meeting.

Smallest of the four classes, the juniors made up for their size by taking on two successful all-school projects. Under junior sponsorship, students danced on the coliseum sidewalk in a "cement mixer," then inside in the traditional Junior-Senior Prom. Prexy Bruce Roberts also led the class in meetings and assemblies which featured home grown talent and agitation for bigger and better junior projects.

BRUCE ROBERTS, president

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

From the bottom up with the junior class council it was Bruce Roberts, president; Sam Van Arsdale, sergeant-at-arms; and Jerry Clark, treasurer. On the coed side were Carol Frisch, vice-president, and Sally Harris, secretary.

CHARLIE DUNN, president

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS

With a smile to give any toothpaste ad more than its share of popularity, president Charlie Dunn carried the class through an activity-filled year. The class of 1958 started fall term with an all-school coffee hour. Coffee, cigarettes, and the combo music of the Blue Notes was strictly on the house as students met in the ballroom. Next was the sock hop, held after the Washington game in the coliseum. On the agenda for spring term was a joint meeting with University of Oregon's sophomore class council, the cotillion, and the traditional freshman-sophomore picnic.

Standing: Fred Ford, sergeant-at-arms; Tom Conklin, treasurer; Seated: Linda Lampman, secretary; Charlie Dunn, president; and Dorothy Rhoades, vice-president.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

Full of eager young ideas, the class of 1959 opened its four-year stay at Oregon State with the annual freshman dance. President Ken Cook led a drive for an organized Rook yell section at basketball games and with the help of freshman yell leaders formed a rally committee. Rook Don Lamb organized one of the biggest Homecoming bonfires in recent years and succeeded in keeping it safe from marauding Oregon Ducks. Still striving for acceptance, the Rooks laid plans for beating the class of 1958 at the annual spring term freshman-sophomore picnic.

McKENZIE COOK, president

PUBLICATIONS

Serving not only the students but the faculty and alumni, publications carry on a monumental job as the voice and mirror of campus life. Highly technical information from engineers was handled just as energetically as club meeting notices in the paper by student writers and photographers.

JIM LATTIE, Barometer Editor

BAROMETER

Coordinating the reporting and interpretation of campus news through the Barometer is Jim Lattie. The "smiling eagle" of publications guided the four times a week newspaper through a vigorous year that saw student examination thefts curbed, and the launching of a teacher improvement movement. Handling production was managing editor, Tam Moore. Editorial continuity was directed by associate editor Betty Shideler. Jack Rickard, news editor, managed the large staff of general and special reporters. Sports coverage was supervised by editor, Jack McIsaac. Features were under the split guidance of Bill Strader and Marilyn Bradshaw.

BAROMETER STAFF

Front page production, which takes about eight hours a night was handled by night editors, Tam Moore, Jack McIsaac, Wayne Woodman, shop foreman Ray Henry, and night editors Betty Shideler and Karen Kendall. Not pictured: Corabel Church, Marilyn Bradshaw and Ron Reeves.

Copy accuracy was charged to Sally Hornecker, seated; Barbara Hartley, Linda Lampman and Ann Kirpatrick. Not pictured, Gayle Davidson and Dorothy Harvey.

The big duty of keeping the office clean, handling typing and filing, were secretaries Irene Tanaka; Pat Nymen; Sharon Hinton, Office manager; and Ardith Conklin.

Part of the staff of 15 night assistants, gathered around the press, are Ken Chaney, Grant Kerber, Ron Reeves, Dave Jesmer, Marilyn Bradshaw and Bob Cramer.

Bob Scott, Barometer business manager.

BAROMETER MANAGER

The Barometer business staff, accused by some of backing a shopping news during 1955-56, broke many records for a successful year. Piloted by Manager Bob Scott, a likable and photogenic fellow, the business side had little trouble pleasing advertisers and printers, guided the Barometer to financial gain on a tight budget. Bills, books and ledgers were an every day diet for Scott and his hustling staff of salesmen, collectors and assistants.

Barometer business secretaries: Barbara Jo Brown, Judy Hansen, Joanne Hudlow, Betty Koepp, Sally Manary, Barbara Connors, and Phoebe Lou Braun.

Doug Beito: Campus Office manager, Circulation manager, and Cuts and Engraving manager.

BEAVER

Pasting, picture taking, and occasionally playing, the Beaver staff has put in many long hours getting this edition of the annual to the presses. From the editor's office, Shirley Schultz, with pencil in one hand and telephone in the other, coordinated the 11 section editors and a staff of close to 50 workers.

Special effort has gone into this fiftieth anniversary issue of the Beaver. From its conception last spring, the book has pointed proudly to putting out an issue that will long be remembered. Sounds of the campus, recorded by the speech department on an LP record, provide a new type remembrance of college days.

Virginia Ramsey, associate editor and "right hand gal" can still smile between checking copy and trips to the "O" club.

BEAVER STAFF

In a typical non-working pose are Bob Nelson, clubs and honoraries; Coral Stone, living groups; and Neil Saling, sports editor.

Taking five from their sections are Julie Frahm, administration; Don Stresser seniors; Bob Cramer, music and drama; Jane Gill, beauties and personalities; and Dorothy Gathercoal, schools and deans.

Joyce Porter, Business Manager

BEAVER BUSINESS MANAGER

Even though "the office" had to dodge snowball fights from their neighbors, exercise the privilege of coffee breaks, and held many interesting "conversations," the Beaver Manager's Office Staff still met their book sales plus getting their page contracts made and paid. With the big job of fall and winter term registration sales, keeping books balanced, instigating campus-wide book sales through the help of living group representatives, distributing books in the spring, and working with the rest of the staff, Joyce's time was pretty well taken up. With the record of having sold 500 more books than had been anticipated and getting page contracts paid earlier than in the past, this year's staff has a right to be proud of their accomplishments.

BUSINESS STAFF

Sue Nelson: With time to enjoy the many card games in the office, Sue still did an excellent job of typing the necessary forms, assisting with the editor's office work, and keeping the many secretaries busy.

George Kahler: With the responsibility of recruiting book sellers, counting money, and publicizing Beaver sales, one can say that George was quite busy.

Dale Piercy: Beside being the morale builder, keeping accurate records of contracts for pages, and trying to meet the deadlines, Dale spent many hours at his "private" desk.

Brenda Hughes: Being the business manager's "right hand man" in any job that came up, keeping the permanent record files in order, and acting as receptionist, Brenda can still say that she had lots of fun working.

Cliff Kuhlman, Fussels Guide editor

FUSSERS GUIDE

Cliff Kuhlman was editor of this year's Fussels Guide, Oregon State's telephone directory, which contained its usual three sections of student, faculty, college officers and organizations directory. The commercial yellow pages were used for the second time in the guide's history. The publication is compiled and edited by students of Sigma Delta Chi, Theta Sigma Phi, and Alpha Delta Sigma. One new feature was a more complete listing of organizations.

The business side of the Fussels Guide included Art Beavens, advertising, Hal Broughton, advertising, Al Leinan, advertising, Bill Dugan, business manager, Dick Jacobson, advertising manager, and Dave Garrett, sales manager.

Betty Shideler, left, had a big job being directly in charge of managing the editorial work involved in the Fussels Guide. Marilyn Bradshaw was assistant editor and supervised the collection of all information as well as directly assisting the editor.

PUBLICATIONS BOARD

Student publications, with the purpose of acting as public relations agents for Oregon State as well as serving the students and providing semi professional training, are guided by the publications board. Its members accept nominations for editors and managers of all publications and assist these students in their jobs.

MORTAR BOARD

Mortar Board is a senior women's honorary, whose aims are leadership, scholarship, and service. One of the main projects of this organization this year has been to work for emphasizing true scholarship instead of G.P.A. The purpose of the Mortar Board Ball was to provide funds to finance a Mortar Board scholarship and other service projects.

Elder statesmen of campus activities, members of Blue Key are chosen for outstanding participation in college affairs. This national service honor fraternity believes that through student leaders working in close cooperation with faculty administrators the student life will be enriched and the best interests of the college will be promoted. Acting on this belief, the local chapter has in the past few years carried out projects ranging from a program for teacher evaluation to going around to various freshman groups to inform them about the many activities on the OSC campus. Under leadership by Don Cronk as president, the group worked steadily through the year to maintain the spirit and feeling for which OSC is noted.

AGRICULTURAL EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Agricultural Executive Council is the coordinating body for all the departmental clubs in the school of agriculture. The council consists of two representatives from each of the thirteen departmental clubs, four selected officers and two advisors. Through this organization the school plans and administers many activities during the year. The three major school functions are the Ag Smoker, the Ag Banquet, Ag Weekend which features stock and crop judging, club exhibits, a steak fry, dance, and rodeo.

ALPHA ZETA

Alpha Zeta, national agriculture honorary, bases membership on junior and senior men in the school of agriculture who excel in high scholarship, character, personality, and potential leadership in the field of agriculture.

CAMPUS 4-H CLUB

Campus 4-H club is a service organization whose purpose is to bring together 4-H members on campus. The group sponsors an International Farm Youth Exchange in cooperation with Mu Beta Beta. Delegates are sent to other countries to study agricultural life, and in return welcome other countries' delegates to study here.

The group also promotes the 4-H program by providing leaders for local clubs and aids the 4-H leaders at the annual leaders conference held at OSC. Recreational projects include picnics, dances, singing, and games.

MU BETA BETA

Mu Beta Beta is a national honorary for past 4-H club members now attending Oregon State. It is organized to improve interest in 4-H club work along with the campus 4-H club. Together they sponsor the state's International Farm Youth Exchange program. Jean Eyman presided as president of the group this year.

 Row 3: Samuel Oberg, Leonard Olmstead, W. R. Eichler, Bob McKittrick, Frank Phipps, Jim Long, Fred Ford, Glen Eggers, Dick Toy, Pete Pedersen.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The collegiate chapter of Future Farmers of America helps to train prospective teachers of vocational agriculture. It is modeled after the high school chapters for which the members of the collegiate chapters will serve as advisors.

Its program of work is planned by the members to supplement the course work of those enrolled in the agricultural education department.

BERNARD DALY CLUB

Bernard Daly club members are the recipients of scholarships awarded by a fund established by the will of Dr. Bernard Daly in 1922 for the education of Lake County High School graduates. This scholarship allows the winner to attend any state supported school in Oregon for four years. The officers are: president, Harold Kerr; vice-president, Bruce Thomas; secretary-treasurer, Nancy Griffin; advisor, W. M. Langan.

Row 1: W. M. Langan, Nancy Griffin, Carol McLane, Joyce Dunham, Ivy Nelson. Row 2: James Linebaugh, John Scoville, Harold Kerr, Bruce Thomas, James Knoke.

FOOD TECH CLUB

The Food Tech Club is composed of all students majoring in Food Technology and is both social and professional, with its primary purpose being to broaden the student's interests in his field.

Fall term the club conducted a cider project to finance a brochure which was prepared and published by the students and sent to all prospective employers. Other activities included the "get acquainted" freshman feed, the winter term breakfast, and spring term picnic.

FIN AND ANTLER CLUB

To foster wildlife conservation and promote sportsmanship are two of the objectives of the Fin and Antler club. The annual affairs are the venison barbecue held during fall term at Avery Park, which features the famous Liar's Contest; the winter term's turkey shoot; and the two day outing at Yaquina Bay during spring term. An informative news letter, "Wildlife News and Views," is published each term by the members.

ALPHA DELTA SIGMA

Students interested in fostering good advertising practices within the business and advertising field are found in the ranks of Alpha Delta Sigma. This organization is a professional advertising fraternity for men. They provide the business manager and advertising staff on Oregon State's Fusser's Guide.

PHI CHI THETA

To promote the cause of higher business education for women, to foster high ideals for women in business careers, and to encourage fraternity and cooperation among these women, are the purposes of Phi Chi Theta, national professional fraternity for women in schools of commerce. On the OSC campus, members may be from any of the three departments in B & T. Activities included a fall tea for freshmen, and transfer students in B & T; a 4 o'clock tutoring class for shorthand students; and a meeting with Portland Alumnae chapter and the Eugene chapter.

Row 1: Barbara Gamberg, Violet Wong, Pat Matthews, Sue Earlenbaugh, Margaret Welch, Harriet Howell. Row 2: Joyce Saety, Lita Brown, Lois Christiansen, Glenda Hall, Sharon Hinton, Jane Grunder, Charlotte Weatherford. Row 3: Mary Monjay, Gayle Wesche, Lorraine Reinseth, Shirley Schofield, Nancy Justus, Denise Beale, Sharon McGowan, Donna Adams, Marilyn Kailen.

B & T CLUB COUNCIL

Membership in the B&T club is open to all students majoring in Business or Secretarial Science. Functions held annually include a steak fry, dessert dance, senior banquet and several "coffee hours" at the "O" club. The organization seeks to promote closer relations among students.

EUTERPE

Euterpe is a local music honorary for women active in the music activities on campus. The major functions are to aid the music department by ushering at concerts throughout the school year, and to further an interest in music activities by the medium of public relations.

Annual projects include an orientation tea for new students in music at the beginning of the year, an exchange tea with honorary members, women in the community who share the interest in music, a Christmas caroling party, and spring term Chaminade Table dinner.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Kappa Delta Pi joins with the Future Teachers of America in maintaining the high scholastic records and the advancements of the teaching profession. Their main project is in sponsoring the observance of National Education Week on the campus. They also make awards to the outstanding man and woman in the school of education having the highest freshman standing.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Future teachers of America prepares students for professional service as teachers. It is a service organization that is open to all students who want to broaden their professional outlook. Meetings often include talks by outstanding educators.

Phi Eta Sigma, freshman men's honorary, has two initiations for each class. The first during winter term brings in those freshmen who have made a 3.50 GPA for their first term at school. The second is held the following fall term for those men who maintained a 3.50 GPA for their freshman year. Each fall, following along its aims to promote scholarship, Phi Eta Sigma distributes "How to Study" pamphlets to the incoming freshmen.

Working with L. E. Darlington, faculty advisor, the following officers have performed the various duties of administration: Don Bowman, president; Dick McMeen, vice-president; Sherman Rutherford, secretary; Howard Buell, treasurer; and Wayne Woodman, historian.

ALPHA LAMBDA DELTA

Alpha Lambda Delta is a national scholastic honorary for sophomore women earning a 3.5 grade point average for their first two or three terms in college. The purpose of the organization is to promote intelligent living and a high standard of learning, especially by encouraging superior scholarship among freshman women. Activities include the "Brainchild Bust," a party held to recognize freshman women on the fall term honor roll; study-aid discussions with groups of freshman women; plans for sack-lunch meeting with exchange students; and spring term initiation and banquet. Dr. Clara Simerville is the advisor.

ROOK RALLY SQUAD

The rook Rally Squad organized in the fall really showed that they had the spirit to carry their team through. To promote the freshman spirit, they organized a special section for Rookesses, so that the cheering would be centralized. This does much to unite the class and get behind their team on the floor.

SIGMA TAU

All outstanding engineers are considered eligible for tapping into Sigma Tau, national engineering honorary. This year's major accomplishment was the donation of an all-engineering bulletin board in the Dearborn Hall breezeway. Recognition of outstanding engineers and service to the school of engineering are emphasized as goals for Sigma Tau.

I.R.E.

Membership into the Institute of Radio Engineers is open to any student interested in the field of communications and electronics. Emphasis is on the technical and professional development of each student.

The society holds technical meetings throughout the year.

A.I.C.H.E.

The student chapter of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers is open to any student enrolled in chemical engineering.

The society hopes to promote the professional development of its members and to contribute to the development of chemical engineering at Oregon State. Activities include regular technical programs including guest speakers, promotion of the annual national contest problem, and participation in engineering school activities.

Row 1: Alan Johnston, Robert Groner, Gayle Martin, Norman Leeling, Bob Nelson, Mal Jackson, Jack Reider, C. Townsend. Row 2: Dick Sadler, Dick Wuopio, Ron Ott, Fred Helber, Dick McLaren, Ron Jolley, Bob Carlson, Bob Hermsen.

A.S.A.E.

The American Society of Agricultural Engineers is under the jurisdiction of both agriculture and engineering.

Its purpose is to further the education of students in Ag Engineering, and to broaden their scope of knowledge. This is done by inviting guest speakers to the monthly meetings. Frequent field trips are also scheduled.

This year trips were made to the Aluminum Co. of America in Portland, Forest Products Lab. on the campus, and Weyerhaeuser Timber Co. in Springfield.

I.A.S.

The OSC chapter of the IAS is a student organization to expand and broaden the professional and social education of men in aeronautical engineering. For this purpose leaders in the field are sponsored as guest speakers. Special field trips are also included to show the range in the profession.

S.A.M.

The purpose of the Society for the Advancement of Management has been to develop efficiency through study and application of scientific principles and methods of management.

AIEE

Membership in the student branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers is open to any student in the field. The members benefit by an exchange of information about the current developments in the field of applied electricity. This is accomplished through various national publications, and the local technical sessions.

AIEE & AFS

The student branch of the American Institute of Industrial Engineers hold regular meetings in which problems in this field are discussed. Closer contact between faculty and students are made at these meetings.

For men interested in foundry work the American Foundrymen's Society is open to membership. The group visits foundries, pattern shops, and manufacturing concerns in an attempt to gain valuable information in this field.

ETA KAPPA NU

Eta Kappa Nu is a national honorary for electrical engineers. The program is centered around activities that will promote an interest in the field, and advance the standards.

ASACE

The student chapter of the American Society of Air Conditioning Engineers has been established to promote the arts and sciences connected with air conditioning. The Society is striving to increase public appreciation in the science of air conditioning.

IES

The OSC student chapter of the Illuminating Engineering Society is open to students interested in lighting principles. A monthly technical publication is provided as well as speakers presenting papers on general and technical subjects. Field trips are taken near the end of each school year to provide first hand information on the latest methods of illumination.

Row 1: Ralph Sivarens, Herb Wong, Norman Lilly, Vidhurn Hongsumalya, Tom Neal. Row 2: Andrejs Udrijs, Preston Adkins, Alfred Olsen, Bernard Quinn, Marvin Clobes.

A. S. C. E.

The American Society of Civil Engineers was formed to include men interested in the field and to further this interest by an interesting and informative program. During the year competition is open for student papers on this subject.

A. S. M. E.

The American Society of Mechanical Engineers unites the mechanical engineers into a single group. At regular meetings closer contact between students and faculty are made.

The Engineer's Ball is one of the functions in which ASME participates. Demonstrations of some of the equipment applying to mechanical engineering are on display at this event.

FORESTRY CLUB

The Forestry Club is an organization designed to furnish diversified activity for the "Fernhoppers" on the campus. Activities that members participate in are the school of forestry's yearbook, the Annual Cruise; the newspaper, The Hi-Lead; dances; work projects; O Day; Fernhopper's Banquet; and the annual spring picnic. Fifty years of active participation in campus activities is the Forestry Club's record.

SAVE THE BABY TREE LEAGUE

Save the Baby Tree League was organized for the common good and welfare of all silvi-culturally minded fernhoppers of upperclass status with the goal of perpetuating the advancement of controlled reproduction in areas of poor site quality and the control of length of lecture periods and subject matter related to the field of reproduction and re-establishment of areas of Douglas Fir in the Pacific Northwest.

XI SIGMA PI

Xi Sigma Pi, a national forestry honor fraternity, was established at the turn of the century and has been active at OSC since 1929. The fraternity stands for high scholastic standards, the earnest promotion of forestry activities, and the development of leadership in forestry.

MASQUE AND DAGGER

Masque and Dagger Dramatic Society, local dramatics honorary, was founded as a literary society in the early 1900's. At present it is the oldest honorary on campus. The society has as its purpose the promotion of dramatic activity on the OSC campus, both through actual participation, and through encouragement of incoming students.

NATIONAL COLLEGIATE PLAYERS

National Collegiate Players, honorary dramatic fraternity, was organized on the Oregon State college campus in 1923. The national purpose of this fraternity is to raise the standards of college and university theatres by recognizing the most worthy individual and group efforts in the creative arts of the theatre.

Locally, the fraternity serves as a recognition of those students who have given their time to the promotion of dramatics on this campus.

WRA COUNCIL

The Women's Recreation Association at OSC is an organization sponsored by the department of women's physical education for women who desire to participate in activities to further their social and recreational skills.

Governing the organization is a council which includes the WRA elected officers, interest group presidents, Orange O president, chairmen of outstanding committees, and faculty advisors.

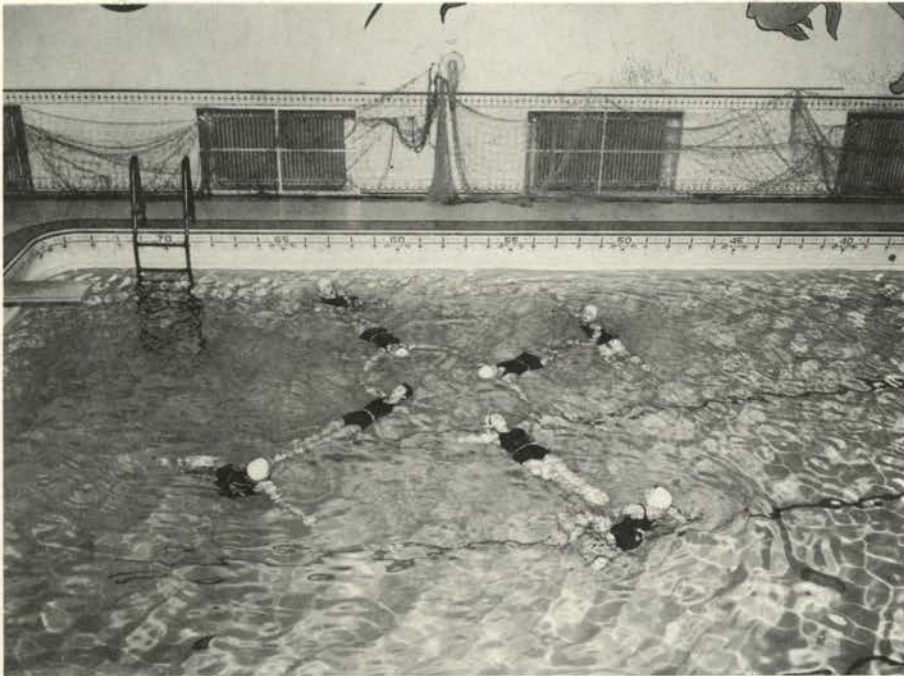

Program of WRA includes intramural and extramural activities, several honoraries, winter term water show, intercollegiate telegraphic meets and ushering at football and basketball games.

INTRAMURAL MANAGERS

The intramural program is planned and carried on by the House Intramural Council. Trophies are awarded to the living organization winning each sports tournament. Many individual and team activities are offered each term to meet the needs, interests and abilities of the college women at OSC. The intramural house manager's council, consisting of living group intramural managers, decides upon all policies governing the activities and selects a variety of tournaments for each term.

SEAHORSES

Seahorses is the swimming interest group for women students. Each year working together with WRA they present a colorful water pageant. This year's theme "Aquademics" depicted academic phases of college life. During the year the members work to improve their own synchronized swimming skills and work with WRA in sponsoring and officiating at intramural swimming meets.

ORCHESIS

This year, one of the big events for Orchesis, national honor society for women in modern dance, was the Northwest Dance Symposium which was held on the Oregon State campus. A demonstration program for beginning modern dance students was given at the end of Fall term.

During Winter term a modern dance concert was held in which the members of Orchesis participated.

HEALTH, PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND RECREATION CLUB

The Oregon State College section of the American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation Club evolved fall term 1955 out of the Women's Physical Education Club and the Men's Physical Ed. Club. The group as a whole felt that as a joint group of men and women they could better attain their purpose of developing the campus relationships and offering opportunities for the membership to become acquainted with the new developments in the fields of Youth Agency, Recreation, Occupational and Physical Therapy, Health and Physical Education.

Club activities include a barbecue fall term, sending delegates to convention winter term, and a senior banquet spring term. Teas and fun nights offer opportunities for club members to get together and just have fun.

New and old councils gather to plan next year's program.

Rifle team practicing at rifle range in back of OSC Armory.

This year again marked a successful season for the OSC Rifle Team. In addition to maintaining their high standard among college rifle teams, the OSC shooters proved their strength in open competition against other rifle teams throughout the state by winning the team championship for the state of Oregon for the second consecutive year. This has also been the fourth consecutive year that OSC has won the Willamette Valley League Championship.

The OSC Rifle Club again sponsored a very successful annual tournament with over 80 shooters competing for an assortment of trophies and medals. The State gallery championships were also sponsored by the OSC club in collaboration with the Oregon State Rifle and Pistol Association.

Tom Ebner, Jim Rice, Don Clapp, and Bill Madden represented the OSC Rifle Club at the National Rifle Matches held at Camp Perry, Ohio during September. Don Clapp placed in the smallbore matches while both Rice and Madden won awards in the 30 caliber events.

PHI KAPPA PHI

The activities of the Oregon State college chapter of the Society of Phi Kappa Phi are directed primarily toward promoting scholarship. In addition to the usual initiation and chapter business meeting the principal events are Honors Accolade, participation in the Honors Convocation, Pledge banquet, and the Spring picnic.

OSC MOUNTAIN CLUB

Mountaineers and skiers from expert to novice find the Oregon State college Mountain club an excellent place to make friends with others of like interests. Throughout the year the Mountain club offers a program to its members which includes instruction in mountaineering, ski instruction, ski and mountaineering movies, folk dances, and picnics.

The club sponsors the Intramural Ski week-end with races and fun, and has an outstanding schedule of climbs of major peaks in Oregon and Washington.

PI MU EPSILON

Membership in Pi Mu Epsilon is open to those who show unusual proficiency in mathematics. An initiation banquet commences the activities for new members, and a math problem contest provides the "brain teaser" event of the year.

Members are joined by a pledge to promote scholarship and mathematics.

High-speed computing machines take their place along with books, paper, and pencil as aids to mathematical study of technological problem.

Mathematical knowledge is advanced by the Army Ordnance and Air Force research groups, headed by Dr. A. T. Lonseth, and the research project for Boeing Airplane Company, directed by Dr. W. M. Stone.

AMERICAN PHARMACEUTICAL ASSOCIATION

The American Pharmaceutical Association is open to all students in pharmacy. Organized to better the standards of professional pharmacy, informative films and interesting speakers are featured on the programs, while a spring picnic provides social interest.

During National Pharmacy Week the Organization is responsible for the designing and installation of an appropriate window display in one of the downtown stores. Another project of the group is the assistance it lends during events of the conventional variety, such as Dad's Day, Mother's and Senior Weekend, and the annual Pharmacy Seminar held at the college each year.

LAMBDA KAPPA SIGMA

Lambda Kappa Sigma is a national honorary organized to promote the social and professional interests of women in pharmacy. The group sponsors the sale of laboratory jackets to pharmacy students and a joint spring banquet with Rho Chi and Kappa Psi.

KAPPA PSI

Kappa Psi pharmaceutical fraternity is devoted to the advancement of Pharmacy. It encourages the development of high scholarship, professional ethics, and a spirit of unity within the profession. Its members are characterized by their qualities of leadership, professional character, and high academic standing.

RHO CHI

The Rho Chi Society is a National Pharmaceutical Honor Society. The fundamental objectives of Rho Chi are to promote scholarship, friendship, and the recognition of high attainments in the pharmaceutical sciences.

Membership eligibility for both men and women is based upon scholastic achievements. They must be in the highest twenty percent of their class and have attained a scholastic average of at least eighty-five percent.

LAMPLIGHTERS

The Lamplighters, a pre-nursing organization, strives to bring their members to a closer understanding of the duties of a professional nurse. The girls have visited the State Hospital in Salem and the Good Samaritan Hospital in Corvallis. Their projects have been an octopus making project, a valentine party for the girls at the Farm Home, and Christmas tray favors for the TB Hospital in Portland. Through their many activities, they have encouraged a friendly bond among themselves.

RED CROSS COUNCIL

The campus Red Cross council is a group of voluntary workers who are interested in promoting the worthwhile projects of the American Red Cross. Special work on the Blood and Fund drives, coupled with the sponsoring of special courses in canteen and staff aid round out the activities.

CO-OP BOOKSTORE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors of the Co-op Book Store is an organization composed of student and faculty members. They function as the policy making group when it comes to deciding the general policies of the Co-op. Student members are elected by the student members of the store. They serve on the board a term of one year.

HUI O HAWAII

The club of Hawaii provides an opportunity for Hawaiian students to get together. Included in the schedule has been a fifth anniversary dinner, an organized cheering section for the visiting UH basketball squad, presentation of a Hawaiian flag to the Memorial Union and a Hekka picnic.

The Hawaiians have integrated themselves into the life of OSC, but may always be remembered for their bright shirts, bare feet, and much aloha.

Hawaii club basketball team review plays for coming game.

A group of upperclassmen, easily recognized by their white cords, shirts, and orange and black rooters lids, are known as the Tailflappers. This group was organized in 1953 "to promote spirit and advance the interests of good sportsmanship."

A non-selective group, Tailflappers is open to membership to any male upperclassman who will buy the exclusive Tailflapper lid.

TAILFLAPPERS

Y-ROUND TABLE

Y-Round Table activities reach into every phase of campus life and into broader areas, through intercollegiate retreats and conferences. Round Table is the official organ of the YM-YWCA on campus.

This spring term, committees have been planning for Seabeck. About 30 Staters are arranging to attend this intercollegiate leadership training conference, which is held each June on Puget Sound, near Bremer-ton, Washington. Each spring the United Campus Fund committees organize the auctions, contests and other fund raising schemes for the fall campaign. Also during Spring term, New Student Week plans are made for the fall program.

International Week, during winter term, saw many Staters spend a busy but interesting time participating in area forums.

Amidst meetings and discussions, Round Table members found time for retreats each term. The spring retreat was "Touchstones to Truth," a study of religion in the arts.

Wally Law and Diane Cameron discuss integration problems with Maynard Catchings, national secretary of the YMCA committee on Interracial and Intercultural Relations.

Involved in a lively discussion are Elisha Tikasingh, Attila Tetik, Emanuel Pitadakis, Elie Sifri, and George Popadopoulos during an International Week area forum.

COSMOPOLITAN CLUB

The goal of friendly international relations is carried to this campus by the Cosmopolitan Club. The members try to further international understanding among students and faculty. Membership is open to anyone interested in building universal brotherhood among mankind. Activities include guest speakers, Friday night parties, retreats, and International week.

BAPTIST YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

Baptist Youth Fellowship stresses personal evangelism, social and spiritual fellowship, and growth in Christian life. Membership is extended to all college students. Fun and group cooperation come through the freshman party, retreats, forums, and worship.

Members of the Campus Religious Council look over the United Nations Declaration of human rights in connection with their council work.

CAMPUS RELIGIOUS COUNCIL

The purpose of the Campus Religious Council is to emphasize religion on the campus. Membership is composed of representatives from each religious group on campus. The council is a means for all groups to work together on service projects and to cooperate with each other.

INTER-VARSITY CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

Students interested in studying the Bible as a guide to living join together in Inter-varsity Christian Fellowship. The group meets together for singing and fellowship once each week.

CANTERBURY

The Episcopal student group builds its program around a four-fold emphasis of worship, study, giving and service. Chief among its projects has been the editing and publishing of "The National Canterburyan," official newspaper for the National Canterbury Association.

ROGER WILLIAMS FELLOWSHIP

This scene is an annual event that is staged by Roger Williams group. The men and women of the group participate in portraying the characters. Meetings are held on Sunday night when the group takes part in worship, study and fellowship.

LUTHER HOUSE

Luther House is the outpost for Lutheran churches of Oregon. The program is geared for all students with little concern for background. It is a student and campus centered expression of the Church. The five aims and objectives of the movement are: worship, study, witness, service and recreation.

WESTMINSTER

Westminster Association, the Presbyterian Congregational student group, strives through a program of worship and Christian fellowship to lay a foundation for the men and women of tomorrow. Two highlights of the year are the retreats, held fall and spring terms.

CHRISTIAN HOUSE

Christian House, student center for members of the First Christian church, served as a fellowship group for its members. Included in the activities were guest speakers, Friday fun nights, retreats, and a ski trip.

DESERET CLUB

Deseret Club is associated with the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints. Among their activities are participation in the Campus Religious Council, fire-sides, intramural athletics, and an annual beach trip. Combined with devotional and social functions, this group serves the Mormon students of the campus.

NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman Club is a Catholic student's organization whose main purpose is to sponsor the spiritual, social, and intellectual interests of the students at Oregon State College. The club is governed by the students with a Father acting as the spiritual advisor.

Under the religious and intellectual activities are included Communion Sundays, study groups, and Sunday breakfasts after 10:00 o'clock Mass. The social interests include the Friday night fun fests.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

Wesley Foundation is the Methodist Church at work on the OSC campus. With a program primarily for Christian education of college age youth, Wesley in addition sponsors a scholarship for a student from another country.

Outstanding program highlights of the year are the fall Freshman Party, Christmas Vesper, and the Senior Dessert.

CHRONOLOGICAL

Reflecting everything from Freshman week to graduation is a great task, made easier through the lens of Beaver cameras. The year was a full one—football wins and concerts, snowball fights and beach trips—all gathered for you in this chrono of Beaverville.

REGISTRATION DAY

Every term students fail to avoid the long, long line that constitutes the registration procedure. This year, however, it was simplified somewhat by the use of I.B.M. cards, used for the first time at Oregon State.

"Stairsteps to knowledge."

"I just have to stand here long enough to get in the picture."

"All part of the system."

Class cards in the fall—vote in the spring.

"Everybody pays in the end."

Memories are made of this.

FRESHMAN WEEK

New students and freshmen come to college for a week before classes begin, a week consisting of meetings, tests, and good times. To conclude the week, students gather for the traditional "picking up paw paws."

"Stater Date Her" was the theme of this year's Nickel Hops. Each women's living organization was open for men to come in and dance.

Prizes and a rotating trophy were awarded to the men's and women's living group showing the most enthusiasm.

"Charge it!"

NICKEL HOPS

SENIOR PROM

Princess Donna Adams leads the royal procession to the coronation.

High point of the Senior Prom this year was the crowning of Patty Keller, chosen to reign by the dancers. Her lovely court consisted of Mary Lou Jump, Janet Skinner, Caryl Coffey, and Donna Adams. Bill Becker's 12-piece band furnished the proper atmosphere to blend with the "Mood Indigo" theme.

Patty Keller is chosen to reign at traditional dance.

JUNIOR CLASS CONGRESS

The Junior Class Congress is a group consisting of one representative from each living group on campus, most of whom were members of last year's Thanos and Talons. The purpose was to have a way in which all the Juniors might better be able to present their ideas and help with class activities.

Meetings were held several times each term at which time problems, jobs, and new ideas were discussed and any action that was necessary came from the congress. This year's group was very willing and capable of making this new Junior organization a success.

HOMECOMING WEEKEND

Court, Carol Frisch, Marlene Sherwood, Barbara Exley, Linda Lampman, and Queen Jeanette McDonald, leave the field.

HOMECOMING WEEKEND

Alums and faculty renew acquaintances.

The beaver football team showed its "New Look" to 17,000 alumni and students by a 14-6 win over the Washington State Cougars. Queen Jeanette McDonald and her court were introduced during half-time activities. Thirty-Staters sponsored a coffee jamboree in the coliseum after the game for returning alumni and students, and then the weekend activities were ended with the traditional homecoming dance.

Campus comes alive as busy weekend begins.

HOMECOMING WEEKEND

Noise parade float decorated by Alpha Omicron Pi, Pi Kappa Alpha, and Kappa Delta Rho won first place in the Friday evening contest with a show-boat theme. The parade was led through the streets of Corvallis to the rook bonfire by the Homecoming queen candidates.

Four living group sign contest winners were announced at the midnight show. Azalea house and Heckart lodge took first places among the independent groups while Alpha Chi Omega and Kappa Sigma were rated tops among sororities and fraternities.

"His Master's Voice."

"Looks like we will dunk'um, do-nut?"

"Beaver, Send the Cougars Down the Stream."

"Clobber the Cougar."

Three to one? I'm turning mine in and starting on a new set.

Frosty's approach appears questionable.

Not even final week dampened the Christmas spirits of OSC students as 1955 drew to a close. One of the favorite activities during this time is the MU Christmas Party, held annually for the faculty children. Students co-operated in its presentation by serving, acting as hostesses, and decorating.

THE YULETIDE SEASON

Christmas decorations hold attention of small guests.

"I have too been good."

Youngsters appear to enjoy their visit to one of the living groups.

Both men's and women's living groups illustrated Christmas spirit and good will this season as they entertained children and Farm Home students in their respective houses and toured the campus on their seasonal caroling trips. The OSC chorus presented the beautiful Handel's "Messiah" to a large audience in the coliseum during the Christmas concert.

Handel's Messiah expresses sentiments of the season during concert.

WINTER TERM CHRONO

The expensive $1.00 type wedding no doubt.

AWS CARNIVAL

Once again AWS sponsored a nite of fun known this year as the Corn Valley Corral. Many living groups operated concessions to earn money for scholarships awarded by AWS yearly. Bill Abel was elected Corral King for his costume "Hi-Ho-Watha." Delta Gamma copped the first place trophy for their concession, "Hay Podner, Can You Top This?"

Tri Delt Can Can Line contributes to evenings entertainment.

MILITARY BALL

Military Ball attenders selected Donna McCoy as Little Colonel for 1956. Donna was promoted to Colonel and honored with the Queen Anns salute by the Honor Guard. Lieutenant Colonels were Nancy White, Beverly Johnson, and Betty Payne.

Donna McCoy leaves stage as Little Colonel of annual event.

MORTAR BOARD BALL

Dinners and original corsages were the order of the evening for the Reversia Ball of 1956. Decorations were to the theme of "King of Hearts" and the entire main concourse of the MU was decorated for dancers, an innovation this year. Jerry Christopherson was selected a King of Hearts from the four other finalists, Don Cronk, Dale Piercy, Bob Bender, and Dick Weaver.

Jerry Christopherson wears the crown as the King of Hearts.

DAD'S WEEKEND

Increased college enrollment resulted in greater attendance at Dad's Weekend this year. About 1200 fathers were present at varied activities planned such as competition between ROTC units, luncheon, tours, wrestling, basketball, intersorority sing, and house functions.

INTERSORORITY SING

Fourteen sororities participated in the second annual Intersorority Sing held here during Dad's Weekend. The sing was noncompetitive and one of the most colorful of the weekend events.

CO-REC

Oregon Staters have finally found free entertainment in the form of Co-Rec held in the Women's Building and sponsored by AWS. Nearly all interests are represented including swimming, folk and social dancing, volleyball, table tennis, shuffleboard, and various games.

"AQUADEMICS"

"Aquademics," a show revolving around classes offered on campus, drew large crowds of spectators this year. The fourteen act show was presented by Seahorses and Aquabats.

HOUSE DANCES

Some of the most colorful events of campus life are the costume dances held Winter term. At this time students travel to the Old Country, Barbary Coast, or regress to flapper days. The troubles and sorrows of the classroom are forgotten in the atmosphere of gaiety.

Sweden comes to OSC in sorority costume affair.

"Well now . . ."

Students glimpse how the other half lives at gala fraternity affair.

MODEL UNITED NATIONS

George Papadopoulos addresses the first plenary session of the General Assembly on the opening night of the Model UN which was held on the Oregon State campus during spring term.

The largest conference held on campus this past year was the sixth session of the Model United Nations. Delegates from eleven western states and Alaska gathered to discuss current world problems.

The 700 visitors represented member nations and presented their respective countries problems in relation to action taken in the United Nations.

The conference had the atmosphere of the "real thing" with voting blocs, walk-outs, and caucus sessions. Native costumes gave color to the sessions too.

Oregon State students prepared the conference and acted as secretariat to the visiting group. Credit was given the OSC group for drawing up a permanent charter to be used in future model United Nations assemblies. The document was accepted and signed by the 69 member-nations at closing ceremonies of the week-long conference.

Background music was provided at the reception honoring visiting delegations.

Dr. Munk of Reed College delivers a speech to the General Assembly.

Visiting press delegates receive briefing from the Barometer staff.

Members of the International Court of Justice hear a case of a defending nation.

SPRING TERM CHRONO

Sunshine party relaxes after victory.

Political speeches, entertainment, and car rallies aroused good competitive spirit during student body elections and drew an increased percentage of the students to the polls. Johnnie Rice was elected to president's post while the offices of first and second vice-president were won by Jerry Thomas and Linda Courtney, respectively.

ASOSC Elections

"We're coming, we're coming, our brave little band."

"Party spirits" move students to rally.

Sophomore Cotillion

After much planning and preparation the Sophomore class presented a Cotillion enjoyed by all. The theme this year was "Southern Accent" and Bill DeSouza and his band provided the proper musical atmosphere.

Dancers enjoy talking to vocalist, Vicki Stuart.

Step on it before it multiplies!

Men and their dates dance to the music of Bill De Souza in Gill Coliseum.

Mother's Weekend

Smiles and styles, an enjoyable part of Mother's Weekend.

Mothers were welcomed this year with typical OSC hospitality. Among the events planned were a style show, luncheon, Mother's Club meeting, the "Mikado," IFC sing, and living group firesides.

Associated Independent Students stage "Mikado" at annual Spring event.

Fraternity dinners are a traditional event popular with Mothers.

Inter-fraternity Sing

Smiles and hand shakes await victorious Beta singers.

Fifteen fraternities entered the competition in the fifteenth annual Inter-fraternity sing, held on Mother's weekend. Beta Theta Pi, Sigma Chi, and Sigma Phi Epsilon won first, second, and third place awards respectively.

"Doesn't everyone hold song practice on their front lawn?"

"My son is the one in the white shirt."

Honor Convo

Congratulation time after tapping.

Fourteen women were tapped for Mortar Board at the Associated Women Students honor assembly. Mrs. Golda P. Wickham, Dean of Women at the University of Oregon, was guest speaker for this assembly which honors the outstanding women on campus.

Mortar Board taps the "cream of the crop."

Senior Weekend

Registration preliminary to a weekend of fun.

Bad weather drives crowd into Coliseum for "picnic."

Students give visitors a preview of campus apparel.

Planned events for future Oregon Staters included both educational and social activities, such as, a water pageant, school and departmental meetings, sport events, and a student variety show. The weekend ended with a date dance in the Coliseum.

Weekend dance proves to seniors that college life is not all work.

Ag Weekend

What life insurance could have done for you.

The steak fry opened Ag weekend this year followed by a barn dance, with Roy Ewart and the "Rhythm Rangers." Hostesses Ann Kirkpatrick, Marilyn Willard, and Joy Wade, presided over the festivities.

First come, first served.

"Meanwhile, back at the ranch."

Dr. Oppenheimer

Oregon State was honored this spring with the arrival of Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, director of the institute for advanced study at Princeton University. Dr. Oppenheimer participated in the science program here and lectured at a convo especially for OSC students.

Dr. Oppenheimer delivers lecture at special student convo.

Junior Grub Day

There must be an easier way.

The Junior class proved its spirit was still alive by celebrating a Junior Grub Day, wearing sweatshirts, pedal pushers, jeans, and burmudas to class. A picnic at Avery Park followed with food, entertainment, and games.

Whoever wins this race has it in the bag.

"Anyone for golf?"

Frosh-Sophomore Picnic

A car rally led the classes of '57 and '58 to Avery Park for their yearly competitive picnic. The class winner was selected on the basis of points earned in games and the beard and beauty contests.

Check those lines—on the cars that is.

Boys at state who really rate use Burma Shave.

It takes real pull to be a beard judger.

Two eggs in the mouth are worth one in the hand.

Freshman and Sophomore males fight for control of giant ball, a favorite game at the picnic.

Oregon State faculty and students form an impressive parade to Coliseum.

Don't fret, some are bound to be blank.

Graduation

OSC conferred 1,021 degrees on students at the 86th annual commencement ceremonies held in Gill Coliseum. Dr. Raymon B. Walker from the First Congregational Church of Portland spoke at Baccalaureate.

Finis!

SPORTS

To the friend of the college or the distant alumni, nothing reaches him faster, or can make him feel prouder than the story of another Beaver sports win. Even in the 1955-56 year of building in athletics, OSC partisans had much to be proud of.

Head football coach, Tommy Prothro, led the Beavers to second place in the Pacific Coast conference.

Varsity Football

In the space of one short year Oregon State has risen from the doldrums of a second rate ball club to one of the football leaders of the Pacific Coast conference. The impressive record of six wins and three losses and a five win-two lost in PCC, is the best since OSC was runner-up to UCLA in 1946. The big reason for the sudden change was new head coach, Tommy Prothro, who brought single wing football back to OSC.

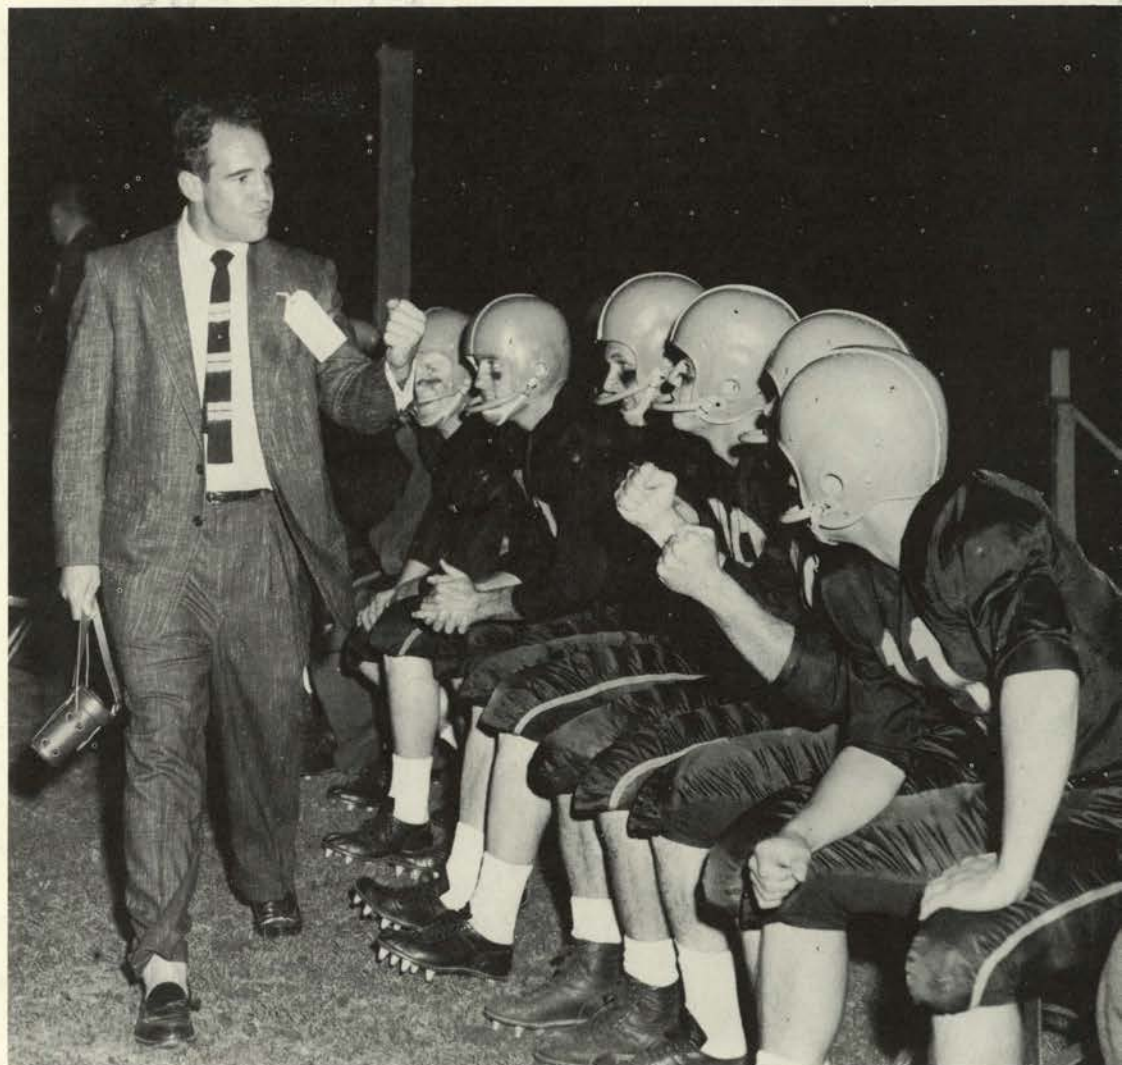

The "new look" has developed some new stars on the gridiron and made some old ones shine brighter than ever. Perhaps the greatest find of the year was sophomore Joe Francis. A second string quarterback in Rook ball the year before, Francis was just the man for tailback in the single wing system and became OSC's leading ground gainer.

Another bright spot was sophomore Sam Wesley from Texas. The 145 lb., 9.8 track man added speed to the sophomore studded backfield. Just back from the army was All-American John Witte, who held down first string tackle in the Beaver forward wall. Teaming up with Vern Ellison and Larry Stevens, they gave the opposition rough going through the center of the line.

Perhaps the highest point in the season was the early season upset win over Stanford 10-0. From here the Beavers proceeded to upset U. of Washington and the California Golden Bears.

ROOK FOOTBALL

With Oregon State's switch to the single wing attack, the Rook squad became the major point of interest for material for future champions. With the addition of many athletes from California schools to add to their strength the Rooks showed the promise hoped for in a very successful season.

The Rooks started slow tying the Oregon Frosh but went on to drop them 27-13 later in the season. The University of Washington Husky-pups also fell to the Rooks 12-13 late in the season.

The ground attack was led by fleet-footed Paul Lowe and line-busting Nub Beamer while Buz Randall and Ted Bates turned in outstanding line play. The varsity will welcome the many outstanding players graduating from Rook Ball next year.

OSC RALLY SQUAD

Oregon State's nationally known Rally Squad needs little introduction to the ardent Beaver sports fan. Headed by the dancing Beaverettes and backed up by the five cheerleaders with their variety of antics, this year's rally squad added lots of laughs and noise to the sports season.

Working with the Rally Squad was the Rally Committee which planned the various extra stunts and pre-game rallies. Jack Beake headed the card stunt planning group which used a flashlight section at a basketball game for the first time at Oregon State College.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

It was a building year. This is what the sports writers and fans said of Slats Gill's 1956 Beaver cagemen. A building year it was but if the sophomore laden team moves as far next year as they did in the 1955-56 season Gill will have another team of champions.

Starting the year with only three men with varsity experience the untried Beavers showed great promise even in defeat at the Dixie Classic playing some of the best teams in the nation.

As the team progressed through the season it became very apparent that the success of the year could not be measured by wins and losses but by experience and teamwork gained. The pay-off came in the final two games in which the Beavers trounced their rivals, the Oregon Ducks, twice to retain the Chancellors Trophy.

The season brought some new stars into the spotlight. Among these were sophomores Dave Gambee and Ken Nanson, junior Bob Allord.

Dave Gambee led the team scoring with a 17.4 points per game average, followed by Allord with 12.9 and Nanson with 8.4. Gambee and Nanson provided much of the spark in the early season games, Nanson hitting from the outside and Gambee dunking them in close. Allord, a steady forward, came into his own when he canned points against the Idaho Vandals and kept up the pace for the remainder of the season.

These men plus other standouts such as Gary Haynes, Wayne Moss and Jerry Crimmins will be back next year to give Gill a balanced and experienced team.

ROOK BASKETBALL

This year's baby Beavers showed a real promise of a power to be topped by 6' 10" Gary Boble and including such hot-shots as Don Pino and Larry Copple, they will make an impressive addition to next year's varsity squad.

Paul Valenti's charges finished the season with a 5 won 4 lost record, losing their final game by a heartbreaking 45-47 to the Oregon Frosh.

For the second consecutive year the Oregon State swim team has shown their rapid progress toward being the top team in Northern Division. Under the guidance of Art Koski, swimming has come from obscurity to place second in Northern Division this year being beaten out by a traditionally strong University of Washington team.

One of the brightest stars of the season was breast-stroker Larry Beck who twice broke the school record in that event. Beck was the lone Oregon Stater to compete in the Nationals this year. Along with Beck in high scoring honors were Ben Jensen, Roy Oness, Eric Jones, and team captain Jack Palmer all of whom have been nominated for the All-Northern Division team.

With the addition of a strong Rook team this year and the loss of only one senior the 1957 team could be the one to beat in Northern Division.

VARSITY WRESTLING

For the second straight year Oregon State's wrestlers took the Pacific Coast Conference Championship. Led by individual champions Art Keith, Bob Kennedy and George Meyers, the Beavers outscored the favored Oregon Ducks in the championship matches.

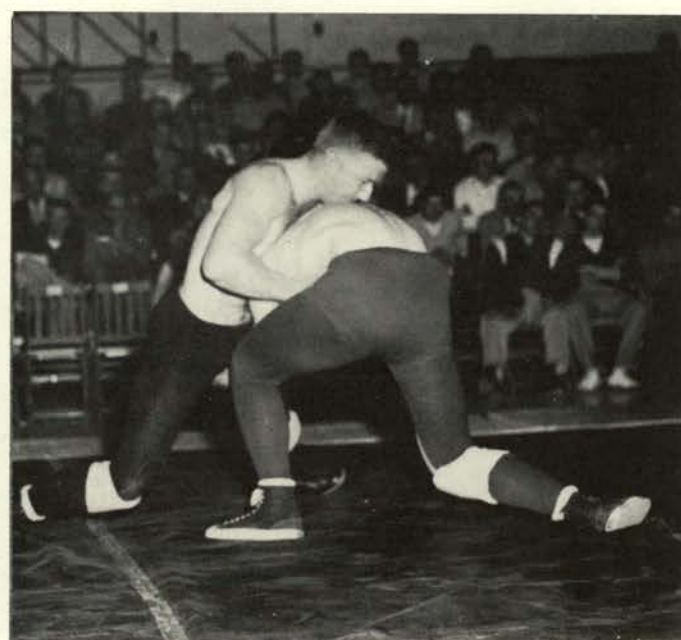

The Beavers dropped only two of their ten dual meets, these to the highly touted Ducks. In winning these matches they outscored their opponents 212 to 103.

The Beavers sent three wrestlers to the National Matches: Art Keith in the 136 lb. class; Bob Kennedy in the 123 lb. class and George Meyers in the heavyweight class. Keith is a three-time PCC champion, Meyers is a two-time champ while Kennedy won for the first time.

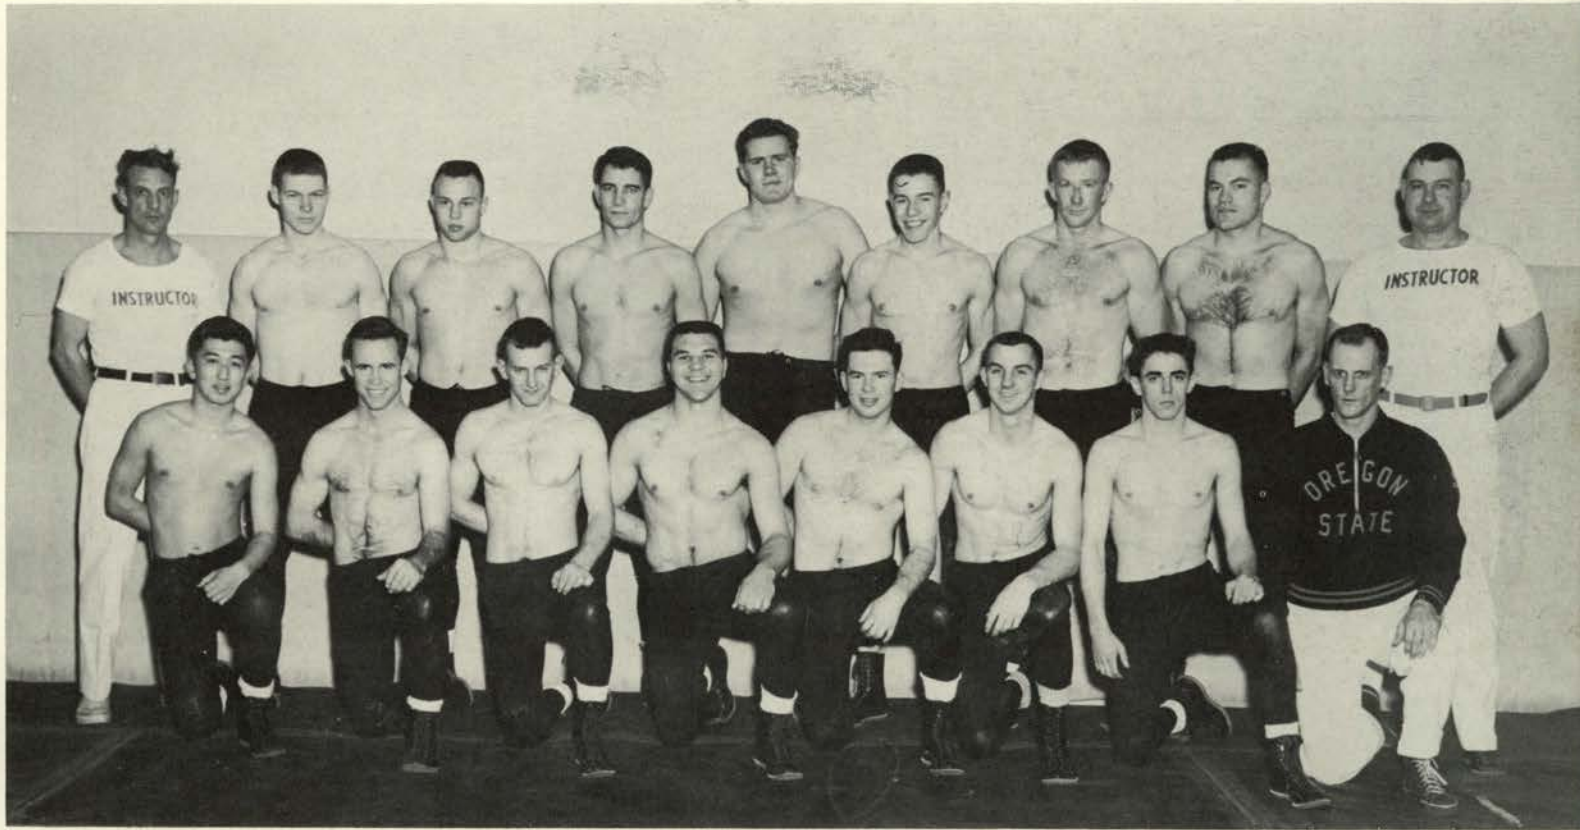

With the addition of this year's strong Rook squad, Oregon State could well be on its way to a championship again in 1957.

The Oregon State Varsity Baseball team finished the 1955 season with a 15 won, 10 lost, and 9 rained out record. It was the rain that again held the Beaver batsmen from showing their full potential.

The Northern Division pennant race was climaxed with a four game series with the University of Oregon. The Beavers dropped the final game and the Northern Division pennant after blasting the Ducks two games out of three.

Captain Jay Dean led the team and the Northern Division with a .465 batting average. Dean was a unanimous choice for All Northern Division and was selected for the collegiate All American team for the second consecutive year.

Leading pitcher was Lowell Pierce with a 4-0 record followed by Joe Epperle with a 4-1 record.

Bobby Boub crosses the plate with another Beaver run.

Oregon State's varsity golf team came within one stroke of being the northern division champion of 1955 at Moscow, Idaho; however, for the second straight year a Beaver was medalist. Junior Jerry Cloninger broke the course record with his tremendous 35, 29, 36, 35, for a total of 135. The year before Bob Donnelly was medalist with a pair of 71s at Eugene. This is the second straight year that Coach Jim Barratt's team has ended up second in northern division.

In dual meets the Beavers used a six man team and the lack of depth hurt them as they won five, lost four and tied two. In northern division tournament play, the four best men are used.

Prospects for 1956 are good, with a strong freshman team coming up to join lettermen Bob Donnelly, Ray Lindquist, Al Wood, and Niels Reimers. The northern division championships are scheduled for Corvallis in 1956.

VARSITY TRACK

Head varsity track coach, Hal Moe.

Oregon State's Varsity track team finished a rather poor season, winding up at the bottom of the Northern Division heap. Lack of experience and manpower again took its toll.

Jerry Church was perhaps the brightest star of the season. After winning the Northern Division crown in the javelin he went on to take third in PCC. Another outstanding performer was Ernie Warren who turned in several fine times in the hurdles.

The 1956 squad will be strengthened considerably by the strong Rook squad who turned out several potential first string men.

VARSITY TENNIS

Bob Jensen shows his forehand form.

Oregon State's varsity tennis team closed out the 1955 season with a second place tie in Northern Division after dropping Washington State and Idaho and trouncing the Oregon Ducks once. The Irwin Harris coached Beaver netmen were outranked only by the powerful Washington Huskies.

In the post season N. D. Tourney sophomore number one man, Norm Merrill, reached the quarter finals and then teamed up with Pete Overton to reach the semi finals in doubles competition giving the Beavers a second place in the tourney.

Other standouts of the year were sophomore Bob Jensen, junior Dick Jacobson, and senior Emory Kealana.

THE OREGON STATE VARSITY TENNIS TEAM. Front row: Chuck Shaw, Mac Friedman, John Clayton, Don Stresser, Bill Hamilton. Back row: Dick Jacobson, Bob Jensen, Norm Merrill, Pete Overton, Emory Kealana.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

Under the state system setup, cultural training is left to the University as a major field, but Oregon State has attained much recognition through its service departments of speech and music. We point with pride to our musicians and thespians.

The chorus sings for the annual meeting of 4-H leaders in the Memorial Union Ballroom, Dr. Evan Davis, director.

The college choruses make their first television film. Professor Robert Walls conducts the Messiah.

The college chorus, which consists of Madrigal club and Glee club, performed frequently this year before campus conventions, lodges, Dads Weekend activities, and local organizations.

The choruses are open to all students on campus regardless of their major school. Every major school is represented among the singers.

CORVALLIS-OSC SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The OSC Corvallis Symphony Orchestra

Joseph Brye, Iris Gray, and Thomas Roberts, OSC staff members, were pianists featured with the Orchestra on February 1.

The Corvallis-Oregon State College Community Orchestra under the direction of John O'Conner presented two public concerts this year featuring Corvallis artists as soloists with the orchestra.

The Orchestra, a member of the American League of Symphony Orchestras, is comprised of students, faculty, and townspeople from Corvallis and Albany.

Sponsored and financed by the OSC departments of music and educational activities, the concerts are presented free to the public.

OSC BAND

The Oregon State college band.

The Oregon State band provides intricate and colorful marching performances at home football games.

This year the band accompanied the team to Seattle for the Washington game. Next year the band is planning to make the trip to Palo Alto for the Stanford game.

Ted Mesang, band director, was recently appointed to the American Society of Composers, Authors, and Publishers.

Professor Robert B. Walls, head of the music department, has directed the Choralaires since they were formed nine years ago.

THE CHORALAIRES

The Choralaires have established a fine reputation throughout this community and the state of Oregon by their annual tours and local concerts.

Now in their ninth year the chorus members look forward to their annual tour of Oregon each spring when they sing at concerts in various communities. The trip this spring took them to Bend, Baker, Vale, and Prineville.

OSC PLAY DIRECTORS

E. S. Cortright, associate professor of speech gives his cast last minute instructions.

D. Palmer Young, D. R. Henry, and E. S. Cortright are the directors and producers of Oregon States plays.

D. Palmer Young, speech professor, fills the post of technical director for all college productions.

FORENSICS

Extempore Squad: Back row left to right, G. Schoppert, J. Wilson, Mr. Doler, L. Custer. Front row: M. Bohnert.

Oratory Squad: Back row left to right, G. Kelly, G. Schoppert, L. Custer, J. Coyle. Front row left to right, C. Kinser, D. Zweifel, M. Sargent, Dr. Wells.

Last fall saw the addition of a trophy case to the forensics division of the speech department. The case that was purchased by the forensics division is admired by Connie Kinser and Gail Schoppert.

The forensics groups at Oregon State have been busy this year participating in 11 tournaments throughout the state and nation. About 30 students have participated in inter-collegiate forensics activities.

Last year 11 first places were won, five second places, and six third places during the numerous contests that Oregon Staters entered.

Debate Squad: Back row left to right, Mr. Knoll, C. Cook, D. Crain, J. Wilson, M. Veal, H. Blankenship. Front row left to right, D. Zweifel, K. Polenske, K. Hall, L. Brown, R. Chaddick.

Bill Strader, show director, has the endless job of supplying ideas and keeping the show running smoothly.

OSC'S "GALLERY ALLEY"

The ever popular talent show continues to promote OSC to colleges, high schools and civic organizations throughout the state. The always new and original acts play an important part in campus activities by highlighting Homecoming and Senior Weekend.

Gallery Alley cast receiving last minute instructions at a dress rehearsal.

The Sigma Cats never fail to please the crowd.

BEAUTIES AND PERSONALITIES

To the students, who for one reason or another command respect of their fellows, we pause for brief reflection. Top aggies to a national fraternity sweetheart, Oregon State has had many personalities to be proud of.

MISS O.S.C.

Chosen last Spring to be Miss O.S.C. was vivacious GINGER LIVELY. A Theta, Ginger is a junior in education, and claims Salem as her hometown.

ROSE OF PI KAPPA PHI AND HOMECOMING

Lovely JEANETTE McDONALD had two honors bestowed on her this year, Rose of Pi Kappa Phi and Homecoming Queen. A sophomore, majoring in Education, Jeanette is a Tri Delt from Ashland.

JUNIOR PROM QUEEN

The gracious senior elected to reign over the Junior Prom was PATTY KELLER. This Education major, from Longview, Washington is a Theta.

LITTLE COLONEL

DONNA McCOY was chosen as Little Colonel at the annual Military Ball. This cute freshman is a Kappa in Lower Division and hails from Corvallis.

SWEETHEART OF SIGMA CHI

The dark haired beauty chosen as Sweetheart of Sigma Chi is JUDY UPRIGHT. An Alpha Chi, Judy is a freshman majoring in Science and claiming Vancouver, Washington as her home.

NATIONAL MOONLIGHT GIRL OF PHI SIGMA KAPPA

JAN MARKSTALLER became the first OSC coed to gain national honors in a fraternity sweetheart contest. The tall blonde, a sophomore from Portland, was nominated by OSC Phi Sigs.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON SWEETHEART

SYLVIA KAIN, a Tri Delt was chosen to be the TKE Sweetheart. Sylvia, a pert sophomore in Lower Division is from Medford.

LAMBDA CHI CRESCENT GIRL

At the Lambda Chi winter formal, charming JANE MOOREFIELD was chosen Crescent Girl. Jane, a Tri Delt freshman is an Elementary Education major from Salem.

KING OF HEARTS

The distinct title of Mortar Board King was bestowed on handsome JERRY CHRISTOPHERSON. A senior in Education, Jerry is a Beta from Coos Bay.

Junior, DWIGHT SORENSON is just about to leave his fraternity, Sig Ep, for a day of skiing. Last year, Dwight was the Treasurer of the Sophomore class, and this year he has been active on many campus committees. Dwight, a Science major, is from Vancouver, Washington.

Playing her uke, is vivacious SUE PEARSON. This year, Sue was the leader of the newly organized Beaveretts. A DG, Sue is a junior majoring in B & T.

The snow Corvallis had this year brought lots of snowball fights and broken windows. Two seniors, BETTY SHIDELER and JIM LATTIE, take time from Barometer activities to play in the snow. Jim is editor and Betty is associate editor. Majoring in Home Ec, Betty claims Corvallis and Tri Delta as her home. Jim, an SAE from Medford, is majoring in agriculture.

One of the typical OSC couples having coffee in the "O" are LARRY PAULUS and SANDRA WOLFF. Larry, a Phi Delt, majoring in agriculture, was captain of the basketball team this year. A Kappa and an active member of the rally squad her sophomore year, Sandra is majoring in elementary education. Larry, often called "Duke," and Sandra are seniors.

A familiar face is MARILYN HEWITT'S. Marilyn has done a lot for OSC by being senate secretary and other jobs where her typing ability has been well used. A Californian hailing from Glendale, Marilyn will graduate this spring with a B.A. in Business. She is an Alpha Chi.

This cute little girl is Barbara, age 20 months, and her proud papa is LARRY STEVENS. Barbara takes a lot of her Daddy's time, but he still has time to play center on the football team and write sport articles for the Barometer. Larry is a senior majoring in education.

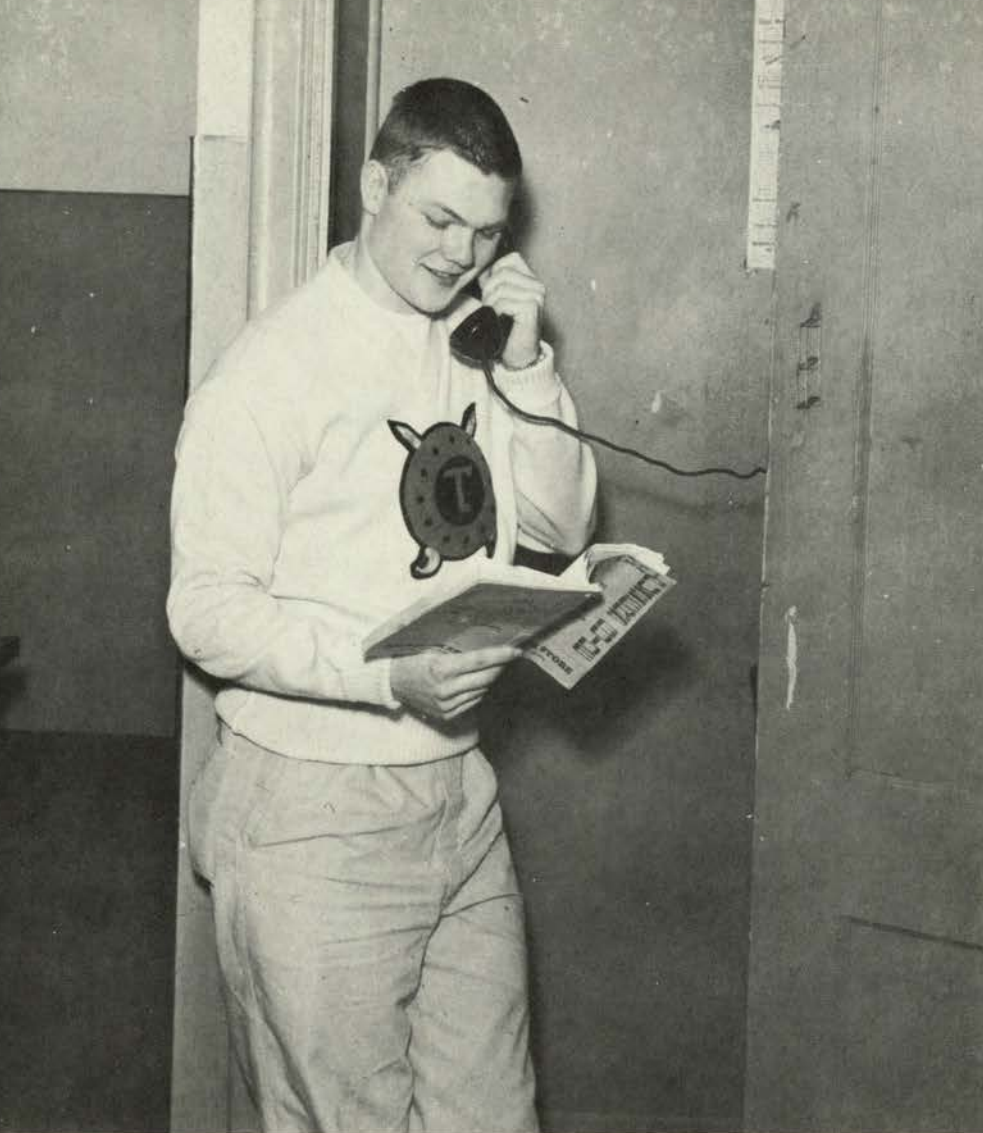

Planning assignments during her student teaching is senior PAT MAXWELL. An elementary education major, Pat is an Alpha Delta Pi from Portland. Being a member of Mortar Board shows that Pat participates in campus activities as well as being an outstanding student.

Senior, AL GUIDOTTI hopes that being in a reclining position will inspire him to study. Various activities such as being President of his fraternity, Phi Sigma Kappa, and a member of the baseball team, keeps Al busy. A B & T major, Al claims Oakland, California as his home.

DODIE GATES is walking out of the Women's Building where she spends most of her time as she is a physical education major and also president of WRA. A senior, Dodie is a DG from Forest Grove.

As president of Thanet, sophomore men's service honorary, TOM PICKENS has many business (?) calls to make. A Sigma Nu from Salem, Tom is majoring in education.

CHUCK ADDICOTT has shown his leadership ability serving as president of the Men's Inter-dorm council. Chuck, a junior from Bellingham, Washington, is an agriculture major, minoring in Food tech.

A true Home Ec. major is JANET LOHRENZ who has been active in the Home Ec Club as well as in other campus activities. A sophomore from Tigard, Janet is a Chi Omega.

WOMEN'S LIVING GROUPS

Out of the living groups, large dormitory to the smallest co-op, has come the personification of OSC. A home away from home, living groups serve well as places of quiet study and rowdy fellowship, athletics and "serious" conversations—the root of our greatness as a student body.

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

33 North 26th Street

The Alpha Chi's are proud of their newly decorated house, and also of the varied interests the members have in campus activities. Their participation includes AWS, Red Cross, Beaver staff, Barometer staff, and many music groups.

Alpha Chi Omega girls won the 1953 AWS carnival booth prize, and third place in homecoming signs.
