The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand features a series of chords and arpeggiated figures in a B-flat major key, while the left hand provides a steady bass line with eighth and sixteenth notes.

Somewhere now the sun is shin-ing, Un-derneath the West-ern sky;
By the rest-less sea I'm wait-ing, Ev-ry breeze re-calls your name;

The first system of the song features a vocal melody on a single staff and a piano accompaniment on two staves. The piano part includes a dynamic marking of p (piano) and uses chords and moving lines to support the vocal melody.

Somewhere now a heart is pin-ing, Pin-ing for the bye and bye,
All a-round the birds are ma-ting, Soon they'll seek the South a - gain,

The second system continues the song with a vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The piano part features a mix of chords and arpeggiated patterns, maintaining the moderate tempo.

Years have pass'd since first we met dear, Years so full of joy and pain,
 Since the hour when first we met dear, Love grows fonder ev'-ry day,

f

Still I know you love me yet, dear, And my love is not in vain. —
 My heart knows but one re - gret, dear, Sor-row that you went a - way. —
