great enthusiasm and before a gathering OAC's fast team went to defeat at the hands of the boys. It was a hard fought contest to finish, neither team will start to finish, neither team will grant the other a point. At times game was a little rough, still no man hurt. Both teams fought with a vigor, the like of which has never witnessed in Corvallis.

The boys from Dallas won by superior work and showed better ability in shooting baskets, which the score indicates. While they were considerably better than our boys still we will not take one iota of honor from them for earned it all. The work of their team is especially commendable and has earned much praise from both sides.

First Half.

The game opened with a snap and a few minutes elapsed before the first foul was called on Dallas. Moore failed to make the goal. The game progressed with the ball often out of bounds. Dallas was given another fine throw for a basket and failed again. Fenton made a basket for Dallas after which Dallas was on a free toss. It was clearly evident that both teams were very nervous, since both resorted to roughing. Craven threw two field goals but failed to make good on double fouls. Dallas scored the goal successfully placing the score 6 to 1 in favor of the home team.

Both Moore and Fenton failed on a free foul and a moment later Moore made a splendid basket from an exceedingly difficult position. Dallas scored the next double foul Moore again failed but Fenton made good. OAC again and Fenton tossed successfully. Foster made a basket. Horton failed to throw a basket on two fouls but Shaw evened up with Foster by adding the score two points for Dallas. Dallas stood 13 to 6. Dallas threw three fouls and two baskets were made by Craven. Moore threw a basket from out of play and the half ended with score 10 to 7 in favor of the visitors.

Second Half.

This half opened fast with OAC controlling the ball most of the first three minutes. Shaw and Craven each made a field goal and Moore threw a basket on a free toss. Fenton threw another basket and Dallas advanced the game at a terrific pace. Shaw and Craven each made a basket Moore, threw three fouls,

The Freshman Party.

The long-looked-for, much-talked-of Freshman Party was held in the Armory last Saturday evening. Much excitement prevailed but the list of casualties was comparatively small and consisted mainly of badly bumped Sopomore craniums. Francis I, King of the Rooks was ill with the mumps and unable to attend so the energies of the Sophs was directed towards "getting" Miles, who was chairman of the Society, for the extinction of Sophomores. Although the Sophs were there an hundred strong, Miles reached the hall safely, arriving in a coach-of-state, protected by the Rooky Swiss Guard.

The program was somewhat delayed by the non-arrival of the Rook, who was to be, in the absence of the King, Master of Ceremonies. He finally hove in sight, however, with the port side of his physiognomy glistening with a new coat of stove polish, unstintingly applied by the accommodating Sophs. Many others arrived in the same condition and the hero of the hour was the man who could show the most stove-polish.

The program was hardly started before a faint, ethereal odor as of H<sub>2</sub>S, began to pervade the hall. All wondered whence came this ambrosial fragrance. All were charmed; some were simply "carried away." Finally the source of the delicious odor was discovered; the Sophs outside had taken off their shoes in honor of the occasion.

About 9:30 the lights suddenly went out, but this contingency was provided for, several dozen candles were soon lighted, and the brilliantly lighted scene of a moment before was transformed into one of indistinct shapes and weird shadows. The lights were soon restored through the efforts of the Rookie's friend, "Rat" Rhinehart.

These few interruptions did not in the least mar the evening's enjoyment but rather added zest to the occasion.

An excellent program was rendered by members of the class in the early part of the evening, after which games were played and refreshments served. Probably the best number on the program was thereading of the "Rooky Gazette" by H. D. Hobson. The College orchestra furnished excellent music.

The decorations were unique and consisted almost entirely of green--ferns, cedar and mistletoe. On the stage was the beautiful Freshman banner, old English numerals of green on a penant of pearl gray silk.

The good time enjoyed by all proved the party to be a decided success and showed that the members of the class of 1911 have plenty of the "get-together" spirit. The party broke up at a late hour, most of the Freshmen going home in groups. If any of the sophs died of fright, their death has been kept a carefully-guarded secret.

Girls Victorious.

Last Saturday morning our Basket-Ball girls, accompanied by Mrs. Heater, and their coach, Claude Cate, left for Drain, where they were to meet the Central Oregon school ma'ams.

Owing to a case of mumps our centre, Kate Moore, was kept at home, which occasioned not a little fear and trembling on the part of the other players, for Kate's place is hard to fill.

But there was a surprise in store for the girls, for during all the game Carrol Edwards, who played centre, played a "starr" game, tying her opponent in every play, each making one basket. The O. A. C. girls were handicapped by the small, slick floor, the side lines of which were the walls, but despite all, a good game was played, each player doing fine work.

One feature of the Drain girls work which called forth admiration was the accuracy from the foul line. They never missed, so it seemed to the college girls.

The score at end of the first half stood 10--5 in favor of O. A. C. Drain having made one field basket and 3 from fouls; O. A. C. five field baskets.

After the intermission the contest was renewed, and the final score--17--9, tells the tale.

The opponents were on the friendliest terms throughout the game, and, other than from good sound bumps into the wall, no one felt the worse for wear when time was called and the game ended.

Cleva Perry starred for O. A. C. at forward, she throwing five field baskets; Mertie Harrington played a good game, but her guard was always there; the guards, Marie Scoggin and Grace Star, did praiseworthy work in their end of the field, often passing the ball out of dangerous quarters when it seemed impossible.

The C. O. S. N. S. girls treated the O. A. C. girls royally from the time they left it. After the game a banquet was accorded the visitors, and other means of entertainment were supplied which lasted until a late hour.

It is the sincere wish of the O. A. C. team that the Drain girls be shown as good a time when they visit us some time in March to play the return game.

Whitman Victorious

In two debates last night Whitman carried off the honors. One debate was won from Willamette the other from P. U.

A Musical Organization.

We have more musicians in school than any other institution in the Northwest and should have a strong and influential organization. This would bring the musicians together, promote and encourage musical talent and be an asset to the institution. We would soon have a Glee club that would surpass any of the other schools and the music department of OAC would soon have a reputation that would make this an important branch.

We at present have a music club but there are some undesirable features in the constitution that keeps the club in a rather unsatisfactory condition.

The club meets every Tuesday at five o'clock in the language room. At the next meeting the constitution will be revised and the club will start out on a new footing and we must have the cooperation of all the musicians in school. Everyone who is interested in any line of music is invited and requested to be present next Tuesday.

All the members of the OAC band should belong to this club as well as all music students and others so interested. The faculty of the OAC School of Music should give their hearty support and encouragement and all should be interested in the success of this club as it means so much for the institution.

Let us all be loyal to this cause and be present next Tuesday evening and help this club get started off right.

Calloway to Represent O. A. C. at Monmouth.

In a few weeks Mr. E. C. Calloway will go to represent the O. A. C. in the state Oratorical contest at Monmouth. Although Oratory does not attract as much attention in our school, as a foot ball game or basket ball game, yet it is of more importance that we win these contests than the others, for it is an indication that we can make a record intellectually as well as physically, and for which the school stands.

With Mr. Calloway, will go two representatives from each class in school, and it is important that they send the best candidate possible, for from this number will be chosen the state President of the Intercollegiate Oratorical Association for the next state contest is to be held in Corvallis.

But these representatives should not be the only delegation to go, we should have a representation of at least one hundred students, to cheer our contestant on to victory. Calloway has a good oration and stands a good show to win.

Girls Tryout Held Monday.

Last Monday night eight OAC's tried out for places on the college debating team and it was one of the most successful contests ever held here. The contestants were: The Misses Scoggin, Jackson, Currin, Roadruck, King, Hancock, Oviatt and Kerr.

The question debated was: Resolved, "That the so called practice cruise to the Pacific is justifiable." Each speaker showed a good line of argument and it was with great difficulty that the judges decided who were the winners.

Miss Kerr was awarded first place, Miss Roadruck second, but later it was discovered that a mistake had been made in summing up and that Miss Scoggin received second instead of Miss Roadruck. Miss Hancock received third. So the team that debates with Monmouth is composed of The Misses Kerr, Scoggin and Hancock. All the markings were very close but it was the general impression that Miss Kerr made the best speech. All of the debaters showed careful preparation and are worthy of commendations.

Two Debates Occur Soon.

Friday, March 6, OAC will be well represented in debate. One of our teams will be in Salem and the other in Monmouth generating the over-heated and viscid article.

For the first time in our history a girls' debating team, representing the OAC will be on the field and a great debate is assured. The team, composed of Miss Vesta Kerr, Miss Scoggin and Miss Hancock will debate with the school ma'ams from over the way. The question; Resolved, "That the so-called practice cruise to the Pacific is justifiable." Our team will support the negative and will doubtless make a good impression.

The question to be discussed at Salem is, Resolve, "That the United States government by a system of shipping subsidies should build up her merchant marine provided, however, that the same is not limited to the Latin American and Oriental trade." The members of our team will support the negative and is composed of Mr. Kerr, Mr. Clark and Mr. P. H. Cale.

Our teams are greatly handicapped because we have no coach, but win or loose we will be in the game.

OAC 30--Chemawa 10.

Last Saturday our basketball team defeated the Indian boys on their home floor. Report has it that the contest, though one-sided, was exceedingly interesting.

THE DALLAS AFFAIR.

The basketball game with Dallas College and the events connected with it reflect very little credit upon the institutions involved. Dallas College should be able to play in Corvallis without such hoodlumism as was displayed by both sides last night. However, neither Dallas College nor OAC are to be considered as wholly responsible for the disgraceful conduct at the armory or at the train. Athletic events between the colleges attract followers from the rougher elements in the college towns whose bad conduct is ascribed to the colleges concerned. In most cases such clashes are begun by town hoodlums and the hotter-headed in the student body join in. Every good student of OAC regrets that any of their number should so far forget the honor of the college as to join in hoodlum attacks upon a visiting delegation. In justice to the student body of OAC it must be said that no such disgraceful conduct has occurred except where the delegation has come from Dallas College.

OLD CHAPEL EXERCISES VS. THE NEW.

"What professor is that?" asked a Freshman of his Senior friend as a tall and dignified Senior passed by. "Is that a Freshman?" asked the same Freshie, of the same Senior as a member of the faculty strode by. And it all happened because the students and faculty are not acquainted with each other as in the days of "Auld Lang Syne."

Under the old system of chapel exercises the students could at least, join in a hearty song, create a little enthusiasm, ascertain who the Seniors and Faculty were, become acquainted, listen to a good old chapel spiel of only 10 minutes duration instead of 50, as we now experience.

The new system is very inadequate; the students cannot join in a hearty song, stimulate a little college spirit, become acquainted and when we do have a speaker he is generally so dry and uninteresting that the students who had enough courage to come that time, vow they will never come again. Not alone is this attitude cherished by the students but by the faculty, as well, which is indicated by their attendance at the exercises. Even the Faculty do not favor going to chapel and how can they expect the students to do so.

In addition to the above named objections we might add that the atmosphere of the Assembly room is so chilling both physically and socially, that we can scarcely wonder why the students do not care to attend.

If left to a vote of the students they would undoubtedly, decide unanimously for the reinstatement of the good old system as held in previous years. Every student and even the members of the Faculty are disgusted with the present system and long for a return of the old. Why cannot the few students who attend chapel regularly, meet in the old chapel room, and in the event that too many students come, which we do not believe possible only on special occasions in the springtime; why then, have them meet in the armory?

People always judge us by our conduct. So, if you do not want to create a false impression do not stand around where the different classes are in recitation and annoy them by your vociferous and torrential enunciations and ungentlemanly conduct.

COLLEGE HOUR.

It would be a good thing. It would meet a much needed exigency. It would bring the Faculty and the students together. It would tend to establish a democratic spirit, and should be adopted by the OAC.

A great criticism of our modern college is that the students and faculty very seldom meet and become acquainted. They never meet and discuss problems and questions relative to the school's welfare and as a consequence both lose the interest of the institution.

We welcome the idea of a "College Hour," when the faculty and student body can meet and discuss the various issues of college interest. One of our western institutions speaks editorially: "The members of the faculty and the student body could set aside one afternoon of each month and meet in unison; say in the gymnasium or armory. On these occasions the four classes could alternate as hosts and see that everybody gets acquainted." Several colleges and institutions have already adopted the feature which has proven a success. Let us wake up, and try the plan.

Y. W. C. A. Election.

The young women of OAC have been working quietly and efficiently along the various lines of work of the Y. W. C. A., during the past months. Everything is running smoothly, and we hope that lasting results will follow the earnest work put forth by the various leaders of Bible Study classes, Devotional meetings and other departments.

Though such praiseworthy work has been done by the present corps of officers and their helpers, we must pass the honor and responsibility on, and next Tuesday at 11:30, in Mrs. Callahan's room will occur the annual election of officers.

The nominating committee has submitted the following names:

For President

Bertha Edwards

Lena Wilson

Vice President

Minnie Divine

Rilla Thomson

Secretary

Ruth Thayer

Ina C. True

Treasurer

Belle Edwards.

This is an important matter, and let every Y. W. C. A. member come out Tuesday, and have a voice in naming our officers for the coming year.

Russell Jeffries is in school for a few days preparatory to leaving for the Naval Academy at Annapolis.

It is near this corner of the Ag. building that Co. H, forms and the odoriferous smell emanating from the cadaverous carcasses of felines almost incapacitates the cadets for drill. Couldn't we have a public funeral some day for the poor pussies, and by getting them off the premises, make it possible for the members of Co. H. to line up without holding their noses?

Portland and Return Only $3.50

The Southern Pacific Co. is now selling round-trip tickets to Portland from Corvallis for $3.50 good going on the Westside train Saturday or Sunday, and good returning Saturday, Sunday or Monday. The same arrangement applies from Portland, giving Portland people a chance to visit valley points at greatly reduced rates. R. C. LINVILLE, agt. 9tf

Oregon Emphasizes Early Training.

O. A. C. has a strong team this year, and no amount of shouting at the meet will compensate for lack of consistent early training.

On Feb. 24th, 25th, 26th, and 27th, round trip tickets will be sold to Tacoma, Wash., for parties desiring to attend the Fifth Annual Convention-Western Retail Lumberman's Association, which will be held Feb. 27th, 28th, and 29th, at one and one third fare for the round trip. Tickets sold on the certificate plan, i. e., full fare going and returned at one third fare provided one hundred or more paying passengers of not less than 50 cents each have been in attendance. Certificates issued by the Secretary of the Association and good for return as Mar. 3rd. 1908. If the attendance does not equal 100, full fare for the return will be charged. R. C. LINVILLE, Agt. S. P. Co. 15-7t

Phil Phases.

During the hurly-burly of the middle term there is always much to attract the attention from society work, but the Philadelphians manage to slip in meetings between acts and keep abreast with the times.

On the 7th we held a most enjoyable joint-meeting with the Utopians, in which much musical and literary ability was displayed by both societies.

A number of our members are domestically inclined. Moore brothers, Utzinger and Cole have recently fitted up commodious bachelor quarters. Worstel and Mays are also proficient in Household Science and occupy artistically arranged apartments. Williamson brothers also believe in preparing themselves for a life of single blessedness.

Colonist Rates.

"Colonist Rates will be in effect March 1, 1908 to April 30, 1908 from Eastern points to the Pacific Northwest as follows: From Chicago to Portland, Astoria and Puget Sound destination, also to points on the Southern Pacific main line and branches, north of and including Ashland, Oregon, $38. From Missouri River Common Points, Council Bluffs to Kansas City Mo., inclusive; Also St. Paul and Minneapolis $30.00. St. Louis $35.50, and from Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo, $30. Stopover privileges and other conditions of sale will be practically the same as prevailed previously."

R. C. LINVILLE, Agent S. P. Ry.

Feronian Echoes.

Our debating team has been chosen for this year and we trust that good luck is in store for them. They are as follows: Cleo Johnson, Esther Leech and Bess Herbert.

Last Saturday night the Jeffersonians entertained us royally in one of their famed parties and a good time is reported by every one present.

Mrs. Lorina Wirt has been added to our jolly throng and we are glad to welcome her in our midst.

Oregon Schedule.

Next year Eugene people will have the opportunity of witnessing at least two intercollegiate football contests. On October, 10, 17, and 24 practice game will be played in Eugene with small colleges, probably Whitworth and Pacific. A freshman game with O. A. C. will take the other date.

An October 31, the Oregon eleven will go to Moscow to play the University of Idaho men. On November 7, there will be no game. On November 14, Oregon will meet Washington in Eugene. On November 21, the big game with O. A. C. will take place in Portland. The last game of the season will be played in Portland on Thanksgiving Day with the Multnomah club. --Oregon Weekly.

Comments from the U. of I. O. A. C. In Line.

The editor and business manager of the O. A. C. Barometer were recently voted salaries of $100 and $50 respectively. The Barometer is a weekly paper publishing about the same amount of news as the Argonaut. The action of the O. A. C. student body in voting to recompense the business manager of the student weekly is in line with the similar move made last spring by the A. S. U. I. It is likely that O. A. C. will find by experience that the step is a just and expedient one.--Argonaut.

Lord God of Host be with us yet, Lest we forget, lest we forgoe. (After exams)

Lord God of Hos, was with us not, For we forgot, for we forgot.--Argonaut.

A Wife's Gentle Rebuke.

Admiral Capps in an address to a temperance society told how, drink had once caused the downfall of a brave sailor.

In the course of the sad story he said: "Sometimes after a debauch the man would be repentant, humble. He would promise his wife to do better, but, alas, the years taught her the barrenness of all such promises.

"One night, when he was getting to be an old man--a prematurely old man, thin-limbed, stoop-shouldered, with red-rimmed eyes--he said to his wife sadly:

"You're a clever woman, Jenny, a courageous, active, good woman. You should have married a better man than I am, dear."

"She looked at him, and, thinking of what he once had been, she answered in a quiet voice:

"I did, James."

New Poultry Houses.

Just south of Cauthorn Hall will be located the new poultry sheds. The poultry department under the able supervision of Prof. Dryden is making elaborate preparations for the same. Already thirty-two buildings have been planned, one incubator house 20 by 30, with a concrete floor and concrete walls, where 20 incubators will be installed, four buildings 7x14, 5 buildings 7x10, 25 buildings 4x6. All will be shingled on every side.

Senior Pins.

The Senior pins have arrived and are exceedingly nifty. They are not the read-me-afar-off kind, so characteristic of previous classes.

Credit to Father Butler.

Many inquiries have been received during the past week as to who wrote the editorial in last week's Barometer concerning "Habits". In answer to the numerous inquiries and to others who desire enlightenment, will say that the editorial was a portion of Father Butler's splendid address before the student Assembly some time ago.

Result of the Inter-class cross country runs today: Seniors: H. O. Davolt, 1st; Winniford, 2nd. Juniors: Beatly, 1st; J. Oviatt, 2nd; Kelly, 3rd. Sophomores: Cross, 1st. Freshmen: McLaughlin, 1st; Watson, 2nd; Dodd, 3rd.

Cats.

The students who are so lucky as to have the privilege of studying zoology, have some fine specimens for dissection this year. The cats are all full grown and large. Every day several pussys become martyrs for the sake of the advancement of knowledge in the human race.

Reward for Work Done.

Some of the members of the Short Dairy Course class were awarded for their good work.

The one receiving the highest grade got a full cream cheese and the lowest grade received one of skim milk. The first prize was captured by a lady.

Good Weather.

The Military department has been taking advantage of the good weather and on giving the cadets regimental drill.

Lecture.

Rev. Armstrong entertained the students at Assembly this week with a lecture on "Mankind."

Inter-Society Debate.

Next Saturday night at 8 o'clock will be held the debate between the Pierian and Athanaeum literary societies. This will be a good lively contest and all should make it a point to attend.

An Education Free.

A Mr. Kragh from Oklahoma is visiting the Penn family, at Philomath. He owns two large ranches in that hustling new state and having come to San Francisco for a visit, he decided he would also take in some of the Oregon sights, but his son who was with him was left at the S. P. Railroad School at the Gate City, which by the way would be a splendid institution for some bright Corvallis boys to attend, as the big corporation gives graduates good positions on the road, and after they have labored for the company one year, the cost of getting the education is returned, so that graduates practically get their training free. Boys, take advantage of this opportunity.

The Florsheim SHOE

"Quality" and "Satisfaction" are just as easy words to write and just as cheap to print as other words.

Quality in the shoe and satisfaction on the foot cost effort, labor, experience, intelligence—facilities—money—and the courage to spend it.

Florsheim quality and satisfaction are real—in the shoe and on the foot.
