Admission

summer.oregonstate.edu/new-visiting/admission/overview.htm

Current OSU students (degree/non-degree-seeking) who are in good academic standing and are registered for credit courses during the academic year do not need to apply for admission to Summer Session. Just register as you would for any other term. You can attend Summer Session unless you have been academically suspended from the university. There are no special admission requirements and no application forms.

New OSU students (degree-seeking) who plan to complete an OSU degree and have not been admitted should review and carefully follow the online admission procedures for first-year or transfer students at oregonstate.edu/admissions. Those who have applied and been admitted for fall term but want to get an early start by taking summer courses need to contact the Office of Admissions.

Visiting students (non-degree-seeking) will need to submit a non-degree application form online*. A $25 nonrefundable application fee will be charged at the time of submission. Formal admission isn't required, so there's no need to submit transcripts. You will be notified by email when your application has been processed. During summer term, all visiting students pay in-state tuition. It's important to note, however, that enrolling in Summer Session courses does not constitute admission to Oregon State University as a degree-seeking student. Students who are seeking degrees from other colleges or universities should check with their respective institution on the possibility of transferring credit earned from Oregon State University. Non-degree students do not qualify for financial aid; see website* for more info.

High school students who meet the prerequisites for individual courses are eligible to enroll. For more information, call the Summer Session office at 541-737-1470 or 800-375-9359.

Get familiar with Summer Session by April 1

Check into course selections and meet with your advisor early to determine how summer courses might improve your academic plan.

Don't overload your Summer Session schedule

Although classes will likely be smaller and the atmosphere may feel more relaxed, keep in mind most summer courses pack 11 weeks (a regular academic term) of material into a shorter time frame, like 8-, 4-, 3- or even 1-week sessions. Make sure you budget your schedule wisely.

Remember: 1 hour of classroom time = 2 hours of study/homework time.

Use student resources during Summer Session

Be sure to utilize these services supported by your student fees: Academic Success Center, Computer Labs, The Valley Library, Dixon Recreation Center, Student Health Services and many more. Visit:

summer.oregonstate.edu/new-visiting/orient

Get advising help

Even if your advisor is not available during the summer, alternate advisors are available to assist you (see page 2).

Watch add/drop deadline dates

Summer Session has six different sessions ranging in length from one week to 11 weeks. This means that a four-week course has a drop date two days after the course begins (see

Access and timing is everything

Many students enjoy the opportunity to utilize the summer to complete courses they were unable to enroll in during the academic year. Plus, there's usually an increase in overall concentration level when you are focusing on only one or two courses at any given time. New degree-seeking students admitted starting summer term will be assessed a one time Matriculation Fee of $300 after the completion of registration for classes.

Summer at Oregon State

With OSU Summer Session comes the excitement, beauty, and versatility of Western Oregon. Around the Willamette Valley, you'll find cultural festivals, art and craft shows, music festivals, community celebrations, and open-air markets every week. The July 4th Red, White & Blue Riverfront Festival and the mid-July da Vinci Days celebration are big events involving the Corvallis community and the Oregon State University campus.

OSU is one of only two American universities to hold the Land Grant, Sea Grant, Sun Grant, and Space Grant designation and is a Carnegie Doctoral/ Research-Extensive university. OSU is located in Corvallis, a community of more than 55,000 situated in the Willamette Valley between Portland and Eugene. Ocean beaches, lakes, rivers, forests, high desert, the rugged Cascade and Coast Ranges, and the urban amenities of the Portland metropolitan area are all within a 100-mile drive of Corvallis. Approximately 18,000 undergraduate and 3,900 graduate students are enrolled at OSU, including 3,500 U.S. students of color and over 1,100 international students.

Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of information in the Summer Session Planning Guide. However, Oregon State University or the State Board of Higher Education may find it necessary from time to time to make changes in courses, curricula, or degree requirements Students already admitted to a program in which such changes have been made will be reasonably accommodated, if possible, to ensure their normal progress to a degree. A student may, however, be required to conform to changes in courses, curricula, or degree requirements as deemed necessary by Oregon State University or the State Board of Higher Education.

Oregon State University, in compliance with state and federal laws and regulations, does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, age, or disability or veteran's status in any of its policies, procedures, or practices. This nondiscrimination policy covers admission and access to, and treatment and employment in, university programs and activities, including but not limited to academic admissions, financial aid, educational services, and employment.
