In response to the hundreds of thousands of letters stacked to the very rafters in my room I've decided to break down, be a well meaning prognosticator, and interpret for an eager public just what's going to happen on the Pacific Coast gridirons today.

It's taken me all summer to equip myself with phychic powers, a crystal ball, a lucky rabbit's foot, etc., so you can be sure of one thing, if you're in a betting mood . . . just pick the opposite team that I choose . . . smack down a bet on the table . . . and you're bound to

Just from glancing over the list of games today . . . there aren't very many, by the way . . . I'm a little jittery. In short, nothing seems to be a chinch. And if there's nothing really a cinch to make any forecasts on . . . it seems sort of dumb to come through with any definite scores. However, my sense of duty comes to the rescue . . . and so, with a final gulp of Dr. Quack's highly recommended medicine, "Confidence Builder-Upper," here goes for a few predictions:

Why Choose This One First

Washington-Oregon: Br-r-r-r...let's skip this one for awhile and come again when more confidence appears . . .

Washington State-California: Everybody else is picking the Cougars, so why shouldn't I? Besides, it's certainly time for Washington State to be getting in there and knock over some of those California bigshots . . . anyway, I said a silent prayer for the WSC squad last night . . . and I hope they win, if just for the people in Pullman.

Stanford-Santa Clara: Another silent prayer was offered up for the Broncos . . . but it won't do any good ... so I'll take the Indians by a couple of touchdowns ...

Shaughnessy Has Something

Clark Shaughnessy's got something this year . . . more than most so-called "experts" are giving him credit for. The Indians this season have a team that gets in your hair . . . the players turn up here and there where you least expect them, almost like magic . . . covering a kick, for instance. Out of nowhere, a flock of 'em descend in a wave . . .

Enough of this, though, and back once again to the business at hand . . .

Idaho-Gonzaga: I don't know why I'm doing this, but I'll take Idaho-and duck Two successive Saturdays of defeat should place the Vandals in a position for a victory scalp . . . it'll be a close one . .

Texas A&M-UCLA: Williamson rates the UCLAns as 89.0 and Texas A&M as 99.7 . . . and who am I to question the Williamson word . . . give me the Texans, too.

he watched his rooks go through

When it came down to the actual playing, McKalip expressed his feelings by saying that they did not show up as well as he expected and they would have to work hard in order to shape up to beat the frosh. They were ragged in their blocking and the timing on many of the plays was terrible but the object of the game scrimmage was to find out how they would react under pressure and the rough spots will now be tried to be ironed out as soon as possible.

Rooks Ragged

The two teams that McKalip used were so evenly matched that the score came out even 6-6. Both teams pushed each other up and down the field for some time without much results.

Coach McKalip is expected to pick his first string from these two squads to start the game next Friday night when they play the frosh.
