

AN OPEN LETTER to SENATOR ROBERT W. PACKWOOD

Dear Senator Packwood:

Congressman Wendell Wyatt remarked to our ASUC delegation in Washington that the nation was facing its greatest crisis since he had been in Congress. The people are calling for positive leadership at a time when polarization and repression seem to be the reaction of many to recent events.

The Carswell defeat gave many of us new hope that social and political justice may be attained within our government. Your visit to Oregon to discuss our current crisis would reaffirm our confidence in the democratic process.

Please reconsider your itinerary for this month and discuss the Indo-China war with your constituents.

Signed,

Don Eachus	Robert D. Clark
Mike Krent	Jim Tiger
Shirley Wilson	Iu Bain
Steve Neal	Joan Hinkle
Dan Allison	Rex Armstrong
Susan Simmons	George Masson
Jean Oliver	Bernie Corrigan
Mike English	Carl Blackburn
Sheila Simmons	Bob Newland
Bob Winger	Terry Bean
Pat Harrington	Dick Reynolds
Elizabeth Strucukens	Robert L. Bowlin
Craig Blau Blau	Phil Barnhart
Tom English	Kent Taylor

LARRY D. LARGE

"Possibility must begin with dialogue,
which is more than the freedom to speak.
It is the willingness to listen, and to act."
-Robert F. Kennedy