Acting President Johnson
Johnson Hall
University of Oregon

Dear President Johnson:

It is my sincere desire that you accept this letter of resignation from the position as Director of the Office of Minority Relations. My termination of office will go into effect as of June 30, 1969.

Let me further state that although I have some regrets in leaving this position, I have no serious qualms about the decision I have made. I assure you that I am convinced it seems to be in the best interests of progress at this time.

Although the times have been trying, I can none-the-less look back upon the experience as a meaningful, profitable, and I hope a contributive one. I have enjoyed working for and with you on the many problems that have faced us over the year, and wish you the best of luck and success in your future attempts at finding the solutions so hard to come by.

Sincerely yours,

Donald Warfield
