Letter of Agreement

September 2, 2003

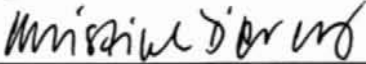

This is to certify that the Oregon Arts Commission and artist James M. Harrison agree to the removal of the sculpture A House for Phineas Gage, should it be at any time deemed by the University of Oregon's Outdoor Sculpture Committee to have degraded to the point of being unsightly or unsafe.

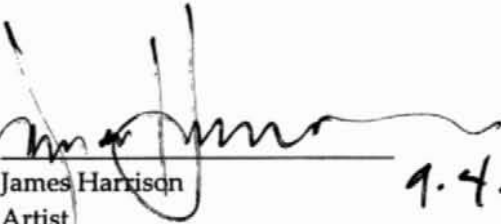

Should removal be called for, The University of Oregon agrees to contact the Oregon Arts Commission and/or the artist, giving the artist right of first refusal to remove the sculpture. If the artist does accept this right of first refusal, he agrees to schedule complete removal of the sculpture within 60 days of notification.

Should the artist not chose to remove the sculpture, the University of Oregon agrees to remove it in a manner that completely dismantles or destroys its artistic form.

This Letter of Agreement shall be signed by the Oregon Arts Commission, the Artist, and the University of Oregon, and kept on file with the artist's contract for this project, as well as with the Oregon Arts Commission's project documentation.

Signed,

Christine D'Arcy, 9.2.2003
