

Explanations - Abstract B. 3^d of 1855.

"Account 55. of the Land" &c

The explanation in support of branch 49. of this same abstract, is applicable to this branch we had either to pay these prices or do without meat of any kind for it was not practicable to carry fresh beef from Port of Spain to the mouth of the river at that season of the year - nor was it economy to ^{pay} 25^e for lbs for that article, when we could obtain beef and mutton at 20 & 22^e for lbs

The explanation in support of March 4th of this I am afraid is applicable to this business we had either the day these papers on the subject greatly improved for it was not too late to copy facts and figures out of the month of August when it had been done I am sure it is necessary to do so that it may be clear when we could obtain them at 28 1/2 1/2 for the
