

Dayton April the 15th 1849

Dear sir I arrived here yesterday

I should of come out to see you but for having no horse I write I wish to know if possible how soon you think you can go south and in what way you are going as I spoke to the Governor about raising a company to go south but he gave no satisfaction although he was in a great haste I wish to advise with you what would be best to do

I learn this morning of Capt A G Hembree
Perth yours in haste William H Wright
