

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the copies of George H. Adams' Indenture of 1st June of 1856 -

2 I have the <sup>consistency of</sup> honor to acknowledge the receipt of Abstract of disbursements on account of Transportation of certificates into the banks - Abstract <sup>No 1</sup> of Purchases on account of Transportation <sup>No 2</sup> with the banks, Abstract of Purchases on account of Amities with the banks closed, Abstract of purchases on account of Disbursements of Profits and Provision for the ~~of the 1st~~ ~~of the~~ of 1856

Upon an examination of these accounts there appears to be a want of explicitness in many of the vouchers - but the heading of the abstracts with the certificate of the Affidavit thereto, explain the object of the expenditures. Several of the vouchers have lacked the signature of the agent to the certificates and one voucher wants the signature of the Portuzee. An Ambrose having resigned, and left the Secretary and not Murray his successor - the address given upon the subject The amigne is noted on the back of the
