

The Following are the articles consumed by fire by the burning of Jacks House & Barn according to his Jacks statement

First four sacks flour fifteen (15) lbs Pork

sugar four (4) dollars

Copper " " "

Indian money twelve (12) strings of as -

Each one as long as his two arms worth forty (40) dollars

one string as long as one arm worth twenty (20) dollars - one string very near as long as his arm worth ten (10) dollars. And one string half as long as his arm - worth five (5) dollars -

One gun worth twenty (20) dollars

Two pair of Blankets worth twenty (20) dollars

Two shawls one worth six (6) dollars one worth five (5) dollars, one Beanie Coat worth twenty (20) dollars one pair of pants worth seven (7) dollars, one

Black Hat worth five (5) dollars, Two white shirts worth five (5) dollars,

Two wollen shirts worth five (5) dollars,

Two quilts worth ten (10) dollars,

Five four dresses made up worth four (4) dollars one dress twelve yards at fifty cents per yds. six (6) dollars one Red skirt worth five (5) dollars,

Five dresses worth ten (10) dollars, (over

Six <sup>Ten</sup> yards of Muslin worth <sup>4</sup> four dollars.
Dishes worth six <sup>0</sup> dollars,

This includes all I believe unly <sup>re</sup> and now I will give you all ~~the~~ losses as follows,

First Two Coats worth Ten <sup>10</sup> dollars one pair pants parts worth <sup>2</sup> two <sup>2</sup> dollars

Two quilts worth Ten <sup>10</sup> dollars,

One trunk worth <sup>4</sup> four dollars,

Five strings of beads worth Two <sup>2</sup> dollars,

Two old quilts worth Five <sup>5</sup> dollars.

one blanket worth one <sup>1</sup> dollar,

Three dresses worth Seven <sup>7</sup> dollars;

One Boys Coat worth Two and a half <sup>2 1/2</sup> dollars,

Four Bars Soap worth one <sup>1</sup> dollar,

Two pans one pot worth Three & a half

<sup>3 1/2</sup> dollars

Articles comming
by fire in books
house when form