The paper is very yellowed and stained with foxing throughout. The handwriting is extremely faint and illegible, appearing as light brown smudges on the page.

The text is written in a cursive hand, but the ink is so faded that the individual letters and words cannot be discerned.

At the bottom of the page, there is a faint signature or name, possibly starting with 'John', but it is completely unreadable.

The overall condition of the manuscript is poor, with significant water damage and discoloration, particularly along the edges and in the center fold.
