Olympic Coaching Clinic

June 26-30

July 1, 6, 7, 8, 1972

University of Oregon

World-famous experts on track and field activities, plans for the Olympics, coaching techniques, officiating procedures, conditioning and training, and competitive organizations. Held in conjunction with the United States Olympic Trials. Meets eight hours daily.

1972 Olympic Clinicians

Bill Bowerman has taught 17 NCAA individual champions, 24 conference champions and in 14 of the last 19 years the Webfoots have finished in the top 10 of the NCAA. He has had 49 All-Americans and 25 Olympians. Oregon won the NCAA team title in 1962, 1964, 1965, 1970 and was runner up in 1961, and 1967. Bowerman is past president of the NCAA Track Coaches Association and a former chairman of the NCAA Track and Field Rules Committee. His appointment as Coach of the Olympic Team is his highest honor.

Bill Dellinger, University of Oregon, is three times an Olympic runner. He has been in charge of the University of Oregon runners for the last two years. His team won the National Cross-Country Championship in 1971 and placed second in 1969 and 1970. His present outstanding individual runner is Steve Prefontaine who runs sub-four-minute miles, is a national cross-country champion, two-mile university record holder, three-mile record holder and one of the top six-milers in the world.

Ken Shannon, University of Washington, will be a member of the panel on the javelin. His present outstanding javelin thrower is Cory Feldmann. Besides Feldmann, he has done outstanding work with members of the Husky Spike Club javelin throwers as well as other outstanding undergraduate javelin men.

Gabor Simonyi has coached in Europe. He was in charge of school programs for hammer throwers in Czechoslovakia and has done clinical work for the Russian hammer throwers. He is presently living in Canada and has made great contributions to American hammer throwing.

Phil Delavan, University of Kansas at Emporia, worked with shot putters at the altitude training camp in 1968. He coached Al Feurbach, NAIA, who has progressed to become one of the world's outstanding shot putters.

Jim Bush, UCLA, specializes in coaching the 400 meters. During his tenure at Los Angeles, he has coached numerous sprinters and 400 meter men. The 1-2 finish of Smith and Collett in the National Championship indicates Jim Bush's ability to coach 440 yard and 400 meter men.

Stan Wright, Sacramento State College, is the principal lecturer for relay racing and number-one assistant for the 1972 Olympic team where he will coach the 4 x 100 meter relay. He will lecture on the United States Olympic team preparation as well as the preparation for the 1968 team, where he was charged with the responsibility of preparing the team coached by Payton Jordan.

Bruce MacDonald, of Long Island, New Jersey, specializes in race walking. He competed in the 1956, 1960 and 1964 Olympic Games. He has coached several outstanding Olympic race walkers.

Bob Newland, Eugene, was the director of four national championship track and field meets. He is a consultant to the U.S. Track and Field Federation.

Assisting Mr. Wright will be Bob Giegangack who was head coach in 1964 and advisor for the 1968 Altitude Olympic Training Camp. He is the Olympic Track and Field chairman.

Payton Jordan was relay coach for 1964 Olympic Games and head coach for 1968 Olympic Games.

Bill McClure has coached outstanding relay teams at Abilene Christian College up to the present season and is a member of the 1972 Olympic staff.
