Harry Zinder

I am writing to you in English in order to catch the diplomatic pouch leaving today.

As you can see from the attached press lease, we have not been dealt with favorably in the summary of the case presented. I did not feel that it was necessary to make a formal complaint at this point but took the opportunity of addressing my letter - a copy of which is enclosed - to Miss Marcia Cooper, who handles most of these releases.

Certainly this release does not affect the course of the debate in the Security Council, but there is room here for a complaint which I feel is contained in my letter to Miss Cooper.
