

Ye-Hiko-San-ginja

Located on the side of Mt Hiko, in Buzen prov.
This mountain has 3 peaks - The North peak is
ded. to the spirit of Oshi-hone, son of Amaterasu omikami; the middle peak, to Izanami, & the South peak, to Izanagi, - Oshi-hone is said to have come down upon this peak from Heaven - He was the father of Ninigi no mikoto, the grandchild of Amaterasu

On April 14th the sacred car is taken to the temporary shrine - where an entertainment is given including Kagura dancing, the Iron Dance, the Dance with the Axe, The dance with the swords, etc

The procession returns to the Main Shrine on the following day where these dances are again performed -
