

Ikukunitama Jinja. Osaka, Settsu Province.

Also called Ikutama Jinja.

Dedicated to Iku tama and Taru tama, Spiritual gods or the spirits of early governors of the country before the descent of the conquering race.

Rebuilt after the conflagration of 1912.

When Hidioshi built the Osaka castle he moved the shrine
to its present site.

Ikkunimata Jintsu. Oaska, Settan Province.

Also called Ikkunimata Jintsu.

Dedicated to Ikkunimata and Taru Jintsu, Spiritual gods of the spirits of early governors of the country before the descent of the

conquering race.

Rebuilt after the conflagration of 1912.

When Hidetoshi built the Oaska castle he moved the shrine

to its present site.