

TOKYO IMPERIAL MUSEUM,

Tokyo, Japan Aug. 1st 1919.

Mrs. Murray Warner,
Chicago Illinois, U. S. A.

Dear Madam;

I feel delightful when I think of our meeting.
I am going to send you to-day those three pamphlets in your trunk and another book by Dr. Kato and also my old article on Shinto ⁱⁿ which I hope you will find something, altogether under separate cover registered.

I hope we may send you some envelopes in a few days.

I enclose a letter to you which I opened, thinking
as relates your Shinto materials.

Yours very sincerely,

Notake Tsuda

TOKYO IMPERIAL MUSEUM.

Tokyo, Japan
Aug. 1st 1919.

Mrs. Murray Warner,
Chicago Illinois, U. S. A.

Dear Madam;

I feel delighted when I think of our meeting.
I am going to send you to-day three pamphlets in your trunk and another book by Dr. Kato and also my old article on Shinto which I hope you will find something, altogether
under separate cover registered.

I hope we may send you some envelopes in a few days.

I enclose a letter to you which I opened, thinking
as relates your Shinto materials.

Yours very sincerely,

Shintarō Tanaka