

March 6th, 1934.

Park Warehouse
1750 North Clark Street
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Sirs:

Thank you very much for moth proofing and re-wrapping my needlepoint chairs.

Among my things in storage are two rugs which I wish you would moth proof and wr<sup>P</sup>. I am expecting to be in Chicago about the last of May and will want to take them on East with me.

Thanking you, I am

Very truly yours,

Gertrude Bass Warner

March 27, 1934.

Park Warehouse
1750 North Clark Street
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Sirs:

Thank you very much for moth proofing and re-wrapping my needlepoint chairs.
Among my things in storage are two rugs which I wish you would moth proof and wrap. I am expecting to be in Chicago about the last of May and will want to take them on East with me.
Thanking you, I am
Very truly yours,

Gertrude Bass Warner