July 26, 1934.

Mrs. Gertrude Bass Warner,
c/o Sam Bass Warner,
Harvard Law School,
Cambridge, Mass.

My dear Mrs. Warner:

I received Sam's letter this morning and answered and have just now received your wire in regard to your taxes.

Your gift tax to the State of Oregon was entirely paid by Sam's check and small over-payment being returned to you.

With your income tax return to the State you paid April 10th one-half of the tax plus 6% interest from April 1st in the sum of $142.22 by your check No. 509 on The First National Bank of Eugene.

On May 14th you paid the remaining half of your tax in the sum of $143.98 by your check No. 1331 on the Northern Trust Company of Chicago.

The over-payment of the gift tax amounted to $36.03 for which check was sent you by the State Tax Commission on May 11th.

Eugene is all agog over the prospect of a successful Oregon Trail Pageant. There has been heavy sale of reserved seats and a great many people are in town today for the opening day of the Pageant. It is quite cloudy and cool and it may be that there will be showers, but it is not the kind of weather which brings heavy rain.
