Dear Gertrude:

I am sending you some back numbers of the Geographic Magazine which contain some particularly interesting pictures. I thought these might be well adapted to your needs while you are still in bed as they do not call for too much reading. If you care for these I can send you some more.

I had a nice dinner with Sam and Ellen and drove home late that night.

I hope all is going well with you and that I will see you again before long.

Much love,

Robert
