

December 4th, 1933.

Mr Perkins B Bass
140 South Dearborn Street
Chicago, Illinois.

My dear Perkins:

Your letter of December first with the enclosure of my checks from the Northern Trust Company has been received. Thank you very much.

Will you kindly transfer eleven hundred dollars from my Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Company account to my checking account in the Northern Trust Company. Through a mistake the five hundred dollars from Mr Edmonds last month was credited in my Northern Trust Company check book. I had no intention of letting my account get so low.

My friends were very good to me at Thanksgiving. I had dinner with Mrs Seaton and her sister and brother in law at their house and I spent the evening with Perkins, whom you also remember of course. As Helen's family is within easy reach, I expect Helen and Sam have spent their Thanksgiving with them. I am glad that you had such a nice time.

Your affectionate cousin,

Gertrude Bass Warner.
