New York, New York.

My dear Gertrude:

I received your letter of the 19th instant stating that you were leaving New York Thursday at 4:00 P. M. and arriving in Chicago at 9 A. M. Friday.

While I have not yet seen Mame, I think without doubt we will be able to have dinner with you Friday night.

I have heard nothing further from Mr. Bryson but assume that he is making up your Oregon State Income Tax return so that it will be ready for you on the 28th, when you will be in Eugene.

With very kind regards, I am

Yours very truly,
