Dear Cousin Gertrude:

I received your letter of the 21st instant and note what you say with regard to your choice of domicile and wish to assure you that I have no disposition to quarrel over this matter but will do everything I can to furnish you the information necessary to make the return.

I note what you say with reference to sending George, Jr., $300.00 on the first of March and $250.00 on the first of April, and will act accordingly.

I am very much pleased also to hear the good reports which you get regarding your mother's health.

Jean and the babe are at our home and, we think, more or less happy but I intend to write you more fully very soon.

With very kind regards, I am

Yours very truly,

Perkins B. Bass
