My dear Gertrude:

This morning I received the information asked by the Government under date of May 31st last, signed and duly acknowledged by you, together with the letter from Washington by George E. Brown of the same date stating that they had reviewed the case of Murray Warner and given their approval to further payment of $30.00 a month.

I am herewith enclosing copies of the affidavit which you signed and the letter regarding the payment of the $30.00 for your files. I also have the same matter in your files in my office.

With very kind regards, I am

Yours very truly,
