

May 8th, 1933.

My dear Perkins:

I have received your letter of May 2nd with the statement from the Northern Trust Company, the statement of the Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Company, your office account for me, and notification that Mr Edmonds had sent in $2,000.00 from the trust. For all of which I thank you very much.

I note that you tell me that you can draw $50.00 from the Continental Illinois National Bank account to make up the $250 for George in June, please do so.

I have signed the paper of resignation as Co-trustee to the Perkins Bass Trust at the Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Company and the Bank is placing Sam in my place at my request. I did this because I am so far away for such long periods of the year and as you say the long delays give the Bank an excuse for some of its dealings.

I am feeling fine and I hope that you are all well and that things are working out satisfactorily with Jean and her affairs.

Your affectionate cousin,

Gertrude Bass Warner
