Dear Cousin Gertrude:

I have just received your air letter of the 9th instant.

I am very much chagrined and humiliated with reference to the $200.00 which you requested me in your letter of December 12th last to send to Jolly as an extra check for a Christmas present to him. I can not understand how it was overlooked but I have today written to him and sent him a check for $200.00 with my apologies, a copy of which I am enclosing herewith.

With reference to his December check for $350.00, you will find that accounted for in my letter to you of December 2nd last, showing that it was sent on December 1st. After receipt of your telegram of January 9th, I sent Jolly a check for $350.00 the same day for you.

From the above, you will see that the statement I sent to you on January 4th shows your account at that date correctly. I shall make the deposit to your Northern Trust Company bank, leaving a balance of $800.00 in your Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Company account as requested by you.

This morning, I sent you a letter regarding Jean's affairs. In a letter dated Gastonia, North Carolina, December 16th, Avriett wrote me as follows:

"Regarding Ros at the house, I had intended having him leave a long time ago. I will see that he leaves at once".

Whether he has left or not, I have not heard but I shall follow it up and see that he does.

Mame had a check-up with her doctor yesterday and had a very good report, which pleased us very much.

With very kind regards, I am

Yours very truly,

PBB/RI
