

March 29th, 1933.

Mr Perkins B Bass
140 South Dearborn Street
Chicago, Illinois.

My dear Perkins:

Your letters of March 25th, 1933 enclosing copies of a letter to George, to Continental Illinois National Bank & Trust Company, to Mr Bryson, and to me from Mr Paul Butcher were received Monday afternoon. Thank you very much.

Your wire about the suit was here when I arrived and I immediately answered to please go on with the suit. I hope it will go thru all right and I am grateful for the trouble you are taking for me.

The occasion for the delay was due to the fact that I had promised Sam that I would not make any move about my business affairs without consulting him and I suddenly realized that I was getting into a position where I was not keeping my word. This I am sure that you will understand.

With love to the family as well as to yourself.

Sincerely yours,

March 28th, 1935.
