My dear Gertrude:

Your letter of the 17th instant from Cambridge was received and in response to this Miss Irwin sent you on the 19th instant a check book of the Northern Trust Company to the Roosevelt Hotel and I am enclosing to you herewith another check book, as requested.

I note from your letter that you have suggested to Miss Genieveve Hale that she might call upon me for assistance should she desire while here in Chicago to meet her father, Dean Hale of the Law School of the University of Southern California. You can be sure that if there is anything I can do for a friend of yours, I shall be very pleased to do so. So far, I have not heard from her.

With very kind regards, I am

Yours very truly
