

April 12, 1934.

Mr Perkins B. Bass
140 South Dearborn Street
Chicago, Illinois.

My dear Perkins:

I am in receipt of your letter of April 6th with enclosures of the statement of the Northern Trust Company and quarterly statement from the Continental Illinois Bank and Trust Company. Also your office statement of my account. Thank you very much.

Please transfer from the Continental Illinois Bank and Trust Company to my Northern Trust Company checking account the sum of three thousand seven hundred dollars.

Thank you very much for writing George as you did. I think writing out the receipt in that business like way was just right. Let me know if you got it back, as you requested.

Hoping that all is well with you and your family.

Your affectionate cousin,

Gertrude Bass Warner.

April 12, 1934.

Mr Perkins B. Bass
140 South Dearborn Street
Chicago, Illinois.

My dear Perkins:

I am in receipt of your letter of April 8th with enclosures of the statement of the Northern Trust Company and quarterly statement from the Continental Illinois Bank and Trust Company. Also your office statement of my account. Thank you very much.

Please transfer from the Continental Illinois Bank and Trust Company to my Northern Trust Company checking account the sum of three thousand seven hundred dollars.

Thank you very much for writing George as you did. I think writing out the receipt in that business like way was just right. Let me know if you got it back as you requested.

Hoping that all is well with you and your family.

Your affectionate cousin,

Gertrude Bass Warner.

