40 Howells Road,
Belmont, Massachusetts.

My dear Gertrude:

Your letter of June 26th was duly received and, yesterday, I sent George, Jr., as requested by you, one check for $250.00 and a separate check for $125.00 and I am enclosing herewith a copy of my letter to him.

So far I have done nothing about copies of wills.

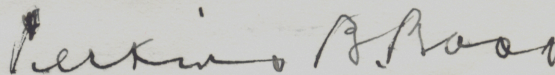

In a former letter you suggested that a Miss Genieveve Hale might call and see me when she was hereto meet her father but so far I havenot heard from her. I did, however, have a call at my office last Saturday morning when I was not here from a Mrs. Mary Singer, who asked if I was a cousin of Dr. George F. Fiske of Huntington Park, California, and if so, she would like to see me about Dr. Fiske. Miss Irwin told her that I did not come to the office on Saturday and she said she was on her way to Michigan for two or three weeks and would drop in and see me on her way back.

This morning, a letter came to my office which looked to me like an advertisement and, upon opening it, I found it was a bill from the Tailored Woman, Inc., of New York. I am enclosing this to you herewith.

I have not yet received the Bank statement for the last quarter of the Perkins Bass Trust and will defer sending you the usual monthly statement until I receive it.

With very kind regards, I am

Yours very truly,

PERKINS B. BASS.

I called her on Monday morning when I was out from a Mrs. Mary Singer, who stated that I was a cousin of Dr. George F. Pike of Huntington Park, California, and so she would like to see me about Dr. Pike. Miss Singer told her that I did not come to the office on Saturday and she said she was on her way to Michigan for two or three weeks and would drop in and see me on her way back.
