My dear Gertrude:

This morning I received a letter from George, Jr., dated August 16, which explains his former letters, and I am sending you herewith a copy of his letter.

As to his inquiry about Jack, All I could tell him was that I understood Jack had come up from Florida for medical attention and that he and his wife were stopping with the wife's brother, William Hegener, 610 Forest Avenue, River Forest, Illinois, and the two letters which George had sent me to be forwarded to Jack were forwarded to that address.

I think now we will have it all straightened out for the time being and I am today sending him a check for $40.00 to the Astoria, L. I., address.

With very kind regards, I am

My dear Gertrude:

This morning I received a letter from George, Jr., dated August 18, which enclosed the letter from Jack and I am sending you herewith a copy of his letter.

As to his inquiry about Jack, all I could tell him was that I understood Jack had come up from Florida for medical attention and that he and his wife were stopping with the wife's brother, William Hegener, 810 Forest Avenue, River Forest, Illinois, and the two letters which George had sent me to be forwarded to Jack were forwarded to that address.

I think now we will have it all straightened out for the time being
