My dear Gertrude:

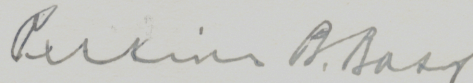

Your letter of November 21, 1935, addressed to Miss Irwin was duly received and she has this day deposited from your Continental Illinois account to your Northern Trust Company account $1,000.00.

I think I am getting along very well but I am taking it easy and this is the first time I have been in my office for over three weeks.

I hope you are getting along very well and enjoying your stay in Portland.

With very kind regards, I am

Yours very truly,

PERKINS B. BASS.
