Portland, Oregon.

My dear Gertrude:

Your letter of the 23rd instant received and I have today deposited the $1,000.00 from your Continental Illinois account to your Northern Trust Company account.

In reference to closing your account in the the Continental Illinois bank, we have taken the matter up with the Northern Trust Company bank and find that the best way of doing this is to start a new account with them as "Gertrude B. Warner, Special" and on that account I could have a similar power of attorney with the Northern as that which I have had with your account at the Continental Illinois bank. I am enclosing herewith a power of attorney running to myself for such an account and you can sign this on the line indicated "G.B.W." and sign it "GERTRUDE B. WARNER, SPECIAL". I would also like to have you sign the three (3) enclosed signature cards which are made out for you and for me to sign. You will sign in each of these cases as "GERTRUDE B. WARNER, SPECIAL" and when these are returned to me I will see to the transfer of your account from the Continental to the Northern.

I have dictated this letter but will not be able to wait until it is written as I have a very important engagement.

Yours very truly,
