

CONTINENTAL ILLINOIS NATIONAL BANK AND TRUST
COMPANY OF CHICAGO

CHICAGO February 8, 1936.

Norman J. Ford,
Vice-President.

Mr. Perkins B. Bass,
140 South Dearborn Street, Room 1416
Chicago, Illinois.

My dear Mr. Bass:

The Bookkeeping Department has called my attention to the closing of the account of Gertrude B. Warner. We are very sorry to have a relationship which has continued pleasantly so many years terminated. We hope nothing has arisen in the office or in the manner of handling transactions which has proven unsatisfactory.

Entirely at your convenience a line would be very much appreciated, at which time we hope to learn a balance will be reinstated later on, and thanking you in advance for your kindly interest, we are

Very truly yours,

(Signed) NORMAN J. FORD.
Vice President.

CONTINENTAL ILLINOIS NATIONAL BANK AND TRUST
COMPANY OF CHICAGO

CHICAGO February 8, 1936.

Norman J. Ford,
Vice-President.

Mr. Perkins B. Bass,
140 South Dearborn Street, Room 1416
Chicago, Illinois.

My dear Mr. Bass:

The Bookkeeping Department has called my attention to the closing of the account of Gertrude B. Werner. We are very sorry to have a relationship which has continued pleasantly so many years terminated. We hope nothing has arisen in the office or in the manner of handling transactions which has proven unsatisfactory.

Entirely at your convenience a line would be very much appreciated, at which time we hope to learn a balance will be reinstated later on, and thanking you in advance for your kindly interest, we are

Very truly yours,

(Signed) NORMAN J. FORD,
Vice President.