My dear Perkins:

Will you be so kind as to send me three checksbooks from the Northern Trust Company Bank. And send them to me at the Heathman Hotel, Portland, Oregon.

As you see I am back at the Osburn Hotel in Eugene . I am here for a few days only but even so, it tells you that I am quite a bit better.

My plan is to go thru Chicago, on my way to New York to a museum conference, about the first of May. I will stay at the Stevens Hotel, as I was very comfortable there. Mabel Klockars Garner is coming with me.

I hope in your next letter that you will tell me that you have had a good report from your doctor and that you feel encouraged.

Your affectionate cousin,

Gertrude Bass Warner
