Dear Mrs. Warner:

I find this morning that I overlooked enclosing to you the two government checks totalling $97.50, and am sending them herewith by air mail. Please pardon this oversight.

Mrs. Bass has gone to Wisconsin with her sister, Miss Elizabeth Maltman, for a few days change and rest and is getting along fine. Mr. J. K. Bass is leaving Friday to be away for a few days and I start my two weeks vacation on Saturday. We will all be back by September 1st, much the better for the rest.

With very kind regards, I am

Yours very truly,
