THIS IS YOUR INVITATION

to our next public interest meeting:
Sunday, October 16th,
the Eugene Garden Club, 1645 High Street, at 2:00 p.m.

featuring an interesting young man...

John Bruning - who will speak to us about veterans buried in Lane County, and about the historic Masonic Cemetery and plans to rehabilitate it. Mr. Bruning is a graduate of the University of Oregon with a degree in History, and is a Master's candidate. He is married and is employed as an Historic Researcher for "Dynamix Incorporated."

Also, we will be honored to have Ron Brentano, of the Oregon Historical Society visit us and, as coordinator of the Oregon Century Farm Program, he will present the certificates to:

Patricia D. May, of Blachly, great granddaughter of William and Ida Benninger.
AND Miss Alma Steinhauer, granddaughter of Herman Steinhauer.

"The Story of Eugene" republishing is finally moving along with contract signing with Lane County [copyright holder]. Our editor, Ken Metzler, is leading a group of our members working on this project.

The next issue of THE HISTORIAN will be mailed to you shortly.

If you are able to attend, here is another invitation of interest:

"On behalf of the Society and Lane County Historical Museum, I would like to invite you to an appreciation ceremony in honor of Joseph Holaday. Joseph made a major bequest to the Society on behalf of the museum. The Lane County Board of Commissioners will be acknowledging this gift through a resolution of appreciation and the presentation of a plaque that will be placed in the museum.

The presentation will be at 9:00 a.m. on October 12, in the Lane County Public Service Building, Harris Hall, 125 East 8th Avenue, Eugene, Oregon. I hope you will be able to attend."
