Dear Gen:

I have mulled over the certificate to be presented to Century Farmers. I see no particular problem in view of the fact that application blanks are still verified by either the county commissioner or county recorder. When the certificates have been prepared, we can send them on to the county judges for signature mentioning that verification was received by the recorder or a commissioner.

I still believe the county should be represented with one of their official's signatures on the certificate.

Do you agree?

Sincerely yours,

Robert C. Scott
