Dear Sirs:

I understand that because of the Ore.
Centennial, that you desire to know of families who have been here 100 years.

My father, Homer C. Glover, Rt 1 Box 155, Eagle Creek, Ore., age 77, is working ground homesteaded by his grandfather, John Glover, who settled it in 1852. He has 92 acres now.

My cousin, Millard Trullinger, is farming part of the original homestead, too.

Thank you for any considerations.

Yours truly,

Clifton Glover
