

- 130
- Bus/play
- 8 1-- These pictures are presented through the courtesy of 6 J. P. Finley & Son, Montgomery at Fifth.
- 8 2-- Peter was the kind of a dog that "just happened."
9 3-- He had two outstanding traits- his ability to make friends--
7 4-- ~~The other~~, <sup>--also</sup> an overwhelming sense of curiosity.
10 5-- These caused Peter to uncover thrilling adventures. The first was a mole in his own back yard.
9 6-- Then, days of days! Peter is taken along to see America first.
5 7-- He meets a badger.
7 8-- A good run is better than a bad stand.
6 9-- He loved to keep things stirred up.
4 10- Then something happened.
8 11- For the first time he was in bad with his friends.
6 12- The humorists of the owl family.
8 13- Then came the sad, sad battle with the hornets.
5 14- The hotel Peter loved best.
6 15- His table manners were above reproach.
7 16- To a dog Yellowstone Park is a weird puzzle.
3 17- Happy days.
9 18- Even Peter wondered at the strange companionship of a mouse and a woman.
19- ~~Then came the great adventure.~~