

AN OUTSTANDING EVENT

Our Association will present

MR. WILLIAM L. FINLEY

Naturalist, Author, Explorer and Lecturer of Portland, Oregon

Mr. Finley's lecture will be on Nature Subjects selected from his over 200,000 feet of films. Last year we seated five hundred and sixty-six persons in the big ballroom of the Eastland Hotel. Sportsmen come from all over the State and this year we should have a ready response for reservations. No lover of the out-of-doors will want to miss this big evening.

Eastland Hotel, Monday, February 11, 1935

Here are some of the guests who have received invitations to grace the head table:

The Governors of the six New England States
Hon. Harry B. Howes, Washington, D. C.
Hon. Wallace H. White
Hon. Frederick Hale
Hon. Ralph O. Brewster
Hon. E. C. Moran, Jr.
Hon. Carrol L. Beedy
Archer B. Harlow; President Mass. Fish and Game Association
F. Gilbert, Ex-President National Ass'n of Audubon Societies
Jay N. Darling, U. S. Bureau Biological Survey
Seth Gordon, President American Game Birds in America
George J. Stobie, Commissioner of Fish and Game, Maine
Thomas Beck, Chairman of the Connecticut Commission
Arthur L. Clark, Supt. of Fisheries and Game, Hartford, Connecticut
John C. Cosseboom, Secretary Commissioner of Fisheries, Providence, R. I.
Everett L. Barrus, Chairman Commissioners of Birds, Providence, R. I.
John C. Phillips, Museum of Comparative Zoology, Cambridge, Mass.
Raymond J. Kenney, Director Fisheries and Game, Boston, Mass.
David A. Aylward, Secretary Mass. Fish and Game Ass'n, Cambridge, Mass.
James E. Barlow, City Manager
William B. Jack, Superintendent of Portland Schools
James Brown, Commissioner Fisheries and Game, Montpelier, Vermont
John H. Finley, Commissioner of Fisheries and Game, Concord, N. H. and others identified with fish, game or nature.

All fish and game associations have been asked to cooperate and to attend in groups.

Ladies Are Cordially Invited

Dinner will be served at 6.45 promptly. As the program is quite lengthy guests will be in their seats by that time. WE ASK FOR WHOLEHEARTED SPORTSMANSHIP ON THE PART OF OUR MEMBERS. Ask your friends to accompany you and by all means MAKE YOUR RESERVATIONS EARLY.

This gathering will be the outstanding event of the year and every member and their ladies should avail themselves of the opportunity offered.

It is possible to fill every available seat in the big ballroom and we wish to accomplish just this and be able by February first to say we are "sold out."

Will you be kind enough to use the attached blank AT ONCE, so that we may know how many tickets will be available for the general public. Don't delay. REMEMBER, THIS IS YOUR ASSOCIATION—SUCCESS OR FAILURE IS IN YOUR HANDS.

FRANK W. WARDWELL, Secretary.

(Reservations will be made in the order they are received. Tables reserved for parties of ten if desired.)

PINE TREE FISH AND GAME PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION

Next Meeting, Wednesday, January 9th
Eastland Hotel, 6.45 P. M.

It don't seem possible to draw another storm like that of our last meeting night. It just can't happen, but storm or no storm we shall expect you to show up the 9th. The storm prevented staging the good program we had arranged so we will offer

Prof. Albert O. Gross of Bowdoin College with his interesting Illustrated Lecture on Labrador Birds.

Then for a little fun we will present the popular group of young people who style themselves

The Skunk Hill Mountaineers
(You'll get a real kick out of this number)

Maybe the ladies will enjoy this program. We can see no reason why they cannot accompany you. If they can stand the smoke, don't believe any objections will be raised.

Don't miss this meeting, and don't let our speaker get the impression we are not interested in the wild life of our state. Come to the dinner or come to the program—just come. If you knew how tough it is to prepare a fine program and have a small number of members show up, you would back up your committee. Try it some time and then you will know what some of us go through on meeting nights.

Make your application for tickets for February 11. Don't put it off—use the blank. Come to the Secretary's office and secure a flock of tickets for your friends.

FRANK W. WARDWELL, Sec'y

Tickets on sale at the Eastland Hotel, Booth's Pharmacy, Art Read's Sporting Goods Store, Edwards & Walker Co.
