

OREGON WILDLIFE CONFERENCE

Corvallis, Oregon
November 19-20, 1936

PROGRAM

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19

Morning Session—9:00-12:00

Registration.

Opening of meeting at 10 o'clock — Ed F. Averill, Oregon Wildlife Council.

Address of Welcome—Dean Wm. A. Schoenfeld, representing the President of Oregon State College, Dr. George W. Peavy.

“The Biological Survey in Relation to the General Wildlife Program”—W. M. Rush, Regional Director, Bureau of Biological Survey, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

“The Oregon Farmer and His Interest in Small Game”—William Graf.

“Our Oregon Wildlife”—

Southern Oregon — Dexter Rice, Chairman, Oregon State Game Commission.

Western Oregon—E. E. Wilson, Oregon State Game Commission.

Eastern Oregon—George Aiken, Oregon State Game Commission.

“Wildlife in Relation to Eastern Oregon Lands”—J. W. Biggs, Chairman, Eastern Oregon Public Land Use Committee, Oregon Planning Board.

Afternoon Session—1:30-4:30

Opening of the session—E. E. Wilson, Chairman of the session.

“What Can Be Accomplished by a Fisheries Program”—Fred J. Foster, Regional Director, Bureau of Fisheries, U. S. Department of Commerce.

“Commercial Fisheries as an Oregon Industry”—John C. Veatch, Chairman, Oregon Fish Commission.

“The Contribution of Our National Parks to the Field of Conservation Thought”—David H. Canfield, Superintendent, Crater Lake National Park, U. S. Department of Interior.

“Soil Conservation and Wildlife Work”—W. A. Rockie, Regional Conservator, Soil Conservation Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Recess.

“We Are Rebuilding Our Range”—O. D. Molohon, Chief, Range Surveys, Division of Grazing, U. S. Department of Interior.

“The Scope of the Oregon Planning Board in Conservation” — V. L. Sexton, Forest Economist, Oregon State Planning Board.

“The Place of Migratory Bird Refuges in Conservation”—Stanley G. Jewett, Superintendent, Malheur Bird Refuge, Bureau of Biological Survey, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Closing of session, announcements, and reports.

General Wildlife Conservation Banquet—6:00 P. M.

The Governor's Message—Governor Charles L. Martin.

“Woods, Water, and Wildlife”—Dr. W. L. Finley, Conservationist.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20

Morning Session—9:00-11:50

Opening of meeting and routine matters.

Chairman for the session, Dean Wm. A. Schoenfeld.

“Problems of Forest Management and Wildlife”—E. N. Kavanagh, Assistant Regional Forester, Forest Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

“Stream Pollution and Its Remedies”—Matt Corrigan, State president, Isaac Walton League, introducing Prof. Fred Merryfield, Oregon State College.

“Pollution and the Oyster Industry”—Harold Clifford, former member of Oregon Game Commission.

“The Improvement of Our Range”—J. G. Barratt, President, Oregon Wool Growers Association.

“Training for Conservation Work at Oregon State College”—Prof. F. E. Price, Assistant to the Dean of Agriculture.

“Studies of the Song Birds in the Carlton Area from 1912-1936”—W. S. Raker, Honorary President, Oregon Audubon Society, introducing Mrs. Grace McCormac French, formerly chairman of the Conservation Committee, Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs.

Closing of the session, announcements, and reports.

Afternoon Session—1:30-3:30

Organization of Oregon chapter, General Wildlife Federation—Dr. W. C. Finley, chairman of session.

Election of officers.

Closing of meeting.