

A blue-tinted photograph of a heron perched on a nest of sticks. The heron is facing right, with its long neck curved slightly. The nest is constructed from several thin, bare branches. The background is a plain, light color.

FOURTH
OREGON WILDLIFE CONFERENCE

Corvallis, Oregon
December 8-9, 1939

PROGRAM

---

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1939

Morning Session—8:30-12:30

- Registration—8:30-9:30—Chairman, Alva Day, Vice-President, Oregon Wildlife Federation.
- Opening of Session—9:30—William J. Smith, President, Oregon Wildlife Federation.
- Address of Welcome—Dr. George W. Peavy, President, Oregon State College.
- Report of the President and Appointment of Committees—William J. Smith.
- Report of Secretary-Treasurer—H. H. Stage.
- Status of Stream Pollution Legislation—Carl E. Green, State Sanitary Engineer; Ben S. Morrow, Engineer, City of Portland.
- The Oregon Roadside Council and Its Program—Mrs. Jessie M. Honeyman, President Emeritus; Mrs. Frank E. Smith, Secretary.
- The Native Oyster in Oregon—R. E. Dimick, Oregon State College.
- Upland Game Birds in the Willamette Valley—A. S. Einarsen, Associate Biologist, U. S. Bureau of Biological Survey.

Afternoon Session—1:30-5:30

- Opening of Session—1:30—William A. Schoenfeld, Chairman, Dean of Agriculture, Oregon State College.
- Dams on the Willamette and Probable Effect on Wildlife—H. A. Rands, U. S. Army Engineer, Representative of Willamette Valley Basin Commission; C. D. Stringer, former State Senator, Lebanon, Oregon; Dr. William L. Finley, Vice-President, National Wildlife Federation, Portland, Oregon.
- Oregon and Its Fish Problem—Fred J. Foster, Regional Director, U. S. Bureau of Fisheries; B. M. Brennan, Director of Washington State Fisheries; Paul R. Needham, U. S. Bureau of Fisheries, Stanford University; John C. Veatch, Chairman of Oregon Fish Commission.
- Discussion of Regulatory Measures on Oregon Coastal Streams, Excluding Columbia—Speaker to be announced.

General Wildlife Conservation Banquet Memorial Union Building—6:30 P. M.

- Introduction of Toastmaster—W. J. Smith, President, Oregon Wildlife Federation.
- Toastmaster—E. F. Averill, Past President of the Oregon Wildlife Federation.

The Governor's Message—Honorable Charles A. Sprague, Governor of Oregon. Represented by Cecil L. Edwards, Secretary to the Governor.

Transplanting Trout from Mexico to Oregon (illustrated)—Paul R. Needham, Associate Aquatic Biologist, U. S. Bureau of Fisheries.

Wildlife and the Joy of Living—Dr. Frederick M. Hunter, Chancellor of State Board of Higher Education.

Wildlife Motion Pictures—Dr. William L. Finley, Vice-President and Regional Director, National Wildlife Federation.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1939

Morning Session—9:00-12:00

Conservation vs. Law Violations—Capt. Charles H. McCless, Head of Game Law Enforcement, Oregon State Police.

Ways and Means of Improving Habitat Conditions for Migratory Fowl (illustrated)—Thomas B. Murray, Regional Director, U. S. Bureau of Biological Survey; Stanley G. Jewett, Regional Biologist, U. S. Bureau of Biological Survey.

The Game Commission and Its Program—Ed E. Wilson, Chairman, Oregon Game Commission.

The Mule Deer—

The 1939 Kill—Frank B. Wire, State Game Supervisor.

Future Range Management of U. S. Forest Service and Its Relation to Our Big Game—L. H. Douglas, Division of Range Management.

The Game Commission's Program of Big Game Management—George Aiken, Oregon State Game Commission.

Afternoon Session—1:30-5:00

The Legislative Program of the Oregon Wildlife Federation—William J. Smith, President, Oregon Wildlife Federation.

The National Wildlife Federation and Its Work—Dr. William L. Finley, Vice-President and Regional Director.

General Discussion of Activities—Promoting conservation in the various communities. Your suggestions will be appreciated.

Committee Reports.

Election of Officers.

Closing of Meeting.