

Birds & Animals renew their coats once a year,
life begins anew each year the young are born though mated for life -

One walk of a few hours out of doors with the serious intention of getting acquainted with our feathered neighbors is often enough to arouse sufficient interest to cause the observer to be a bird student for ever after

Flores - High-birds
Golden winged woodpecker Red shafted

Wilcrissen (Colaptes
Caper
salvator)

Yarker Bird
Yellow Hammer

70 or more local names

nests in haunted house 20 holes in Porch Pillars of church rats ants, beetles, moths, worms a little fruit (wild fruit)