CHICAGO,

Dear Tertrude:

We are getting along but Bambi seems very frail to me - I love her so that perhaps I notice it more than others - Jack goes over to see her ^{early} each morning as John did - I go over later in the day and ~~spend~~ ~~a~~ try to help - Lillie is a dear and Miss Doly a bulwark.
John liked her very, very much and so I love her -
You see there is little to write about.

With affection

Abba
