

Law School of Harvard University,
Cambridge, Mass.

June 2, 1931.

Dear Mama,

The night of May 15th I felt badly & could not sleep at all. The next day I held my final examination at Columbia & came home with nearly 300 books. I should have gone to bed & rested, but I had my report for Mr. Wickersham to finish & also 70 examination books to correct of students who wanted to graduate the first week in June. I got the papers corrected & last Saturday night at 11:30 my report went off to Mr. Wickersham. But I felt miserably in the process & had considerable fever. However I am well now. This is my second day to be out of bed all day & I am eating more & feeling better. I suspect that having my report finished, makes me feel better.

F. W. School of Eastern University

Cambridge, Mass.

my office yesterday. He told me that there was to be but one president in Oregon, but that it had not yet been decided whether his name should be Ken or Hall.

I have not yet read the clippings you sent, because I have been reading nothing but examination books. However, I am looking forward to reading them this evening. Thanks for keeping me informed how things are going in Oregon.

With lots of love.

from Sam.

Law School of Harvard University,
Cambridge, Mass.

Murray & Dr. Wilson both got the gifts from me, but they too are practically over it now. Murray is tearing round as lively as ever & Dr. Wilson will be up tomorrow. I sent Samby away so he would not get it. He is coming back tomorrow.

I felt pretty low on my birthday faced with a large stack of examination books, & so was particularly glad to hear from you. I am sorry you are not coming east until July, but I am looking forward to seeing you then. I think your plan of our going on a motor trip is a good one.

Teaching at Columbia was enjoyable. I am very glad that I did it, but it was strenuous & I should not like to do it again, or at least not while I was trying to get out a report for the Commission.

The son of Mrs. Datson-Davis, formerly manager of Friendly Hall, drifted into

Law School of Harvard University
Cambridge, Mass.

I am sorry to hear that you are leaving for Europe. I hope you will write to me from time to time.
I am sure you will have a very pleasant trip.

I am very glad to hear that you
are coming back to America.
I hope you will find everything
just as you left it. I am sure you will have a very successful career.

I am very glad to hear that you
are coming back to America.
I hope you will find everything
just as you left it. I am sure you will have a very successful
career.