

Law School of Harvard University,
Cambridge, Mass.

August 11, 1932.

Dear Mama,

I have just gotten in touch with Dr. Ragle. He says that I can eat anything & walk around. He said that there was no reason why I should not leave for Denver considerably before the middle of the month.

There has been great excitement here today. A baby skunk fell into the

Johns Hopkins University
Cambridge, Mass.

August 11, 1935.

Dear Emma,

I have just gotten in touch with Dr. Pope. He says that I can eat anything I will around. He said that there was no reason why I should not have for dinner considerably before the middle of the month.
There has been great excitement here today. I very much fell into the

Law School of Harvard University,
Cambridge, Mass.

area way in front of the dining room window. We have put down a board, but I do not know whether a skunk can climb up an 'inclined board.

I have been up all afternoon & mean to stay up all day from now on.

With lots of love
from Sam.

Faint mirrored text at the top of the page, likely bleed-through from the reverse side.

Faint mirrored text below the first line, likely bleed-through from the reverse side.

Handwritten text in cursive script, appearing as bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper. The text is difficult to decipher due to its orientation and fading.

Handwritten text in cursive script, appearing as bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper. The text is difficult to decipher due to its orientation and fading.