0,0,4,1

May 23rd, 1932.

Mr. Sam B. Warner, Harvard Law School, Cambridge, Mass.

My dear Sam:

I presume this letter to Mr. Paul C. Butcher, written on thin paper, is only a copy; nevertheless, I am returning it to you, having had a copy made of it for me to keep.

Thank you very much for taking so much trouble to examine into the desirability of these bonds, as well as for the work you did in examining into the desirability of the other bonds that Mr. Butcher suggested for investment sometime ago.

I am returning my signed letter of consent for the purchase of the bonds suggested by the Continental Illinois Bank & Trust Company and approved of by you.

Your loving,

May 23rd, 1932. Mr. Sam B. Werner, Harvard Law School, Cambridge, Mass. Mr. Paul C. Butcher, written on thin paper, is only a copy; nevertheless, I am returning it to you, having had a copy made of it for me to keep. ytilideriseb ent otni enimere of elduort doum os of these bonds, as well as for the work you did in exemining into the desirability of the other bonds that Mr. Butcher suggested for investment .ons emifemos of consent for the purchase of the bonds suggested by the Continental Illinois Bank & Trust Company and approved of by you.