

Room 1033

March 13, 1935

Mr. Sam B. Warner
Harvard Law School
Cambridge, Mass.

Dear Sam:

Your letter of March 9th, 1935, enclosing a check for five hundred dollars ($500.00) has been received. I thank you very much. I am sending it in this mail to be deposited to my checking account in the First National Bank at Eugene.

On March 6th Mrs. Lyons and I went to Eugene where I had an appointment with Mr. Bryson on the morning of the 7th to go over my income tax papers. Mr. Bryson sent the Massachusetts income tax papers to you, and the Federal income tax papers to Mr. Edmonds for Mr. Edmonds signature. I paid half of the Oregon State tax leaving the other half to be paid later on. I did not send any money for either the Federal or the Massachusetts income taxes as I did not have any, and I knew it could be taken care of at your end.

I am writing Harry Edmonds authorizing him to return the five hundred dollars to you and also to reimburse you for my Federal and Massachusetts income taxes.

I am delighted to hear that you are out of the woods and that at last Harry is my trustee in the place of the Continental Bank so that now you and he can run it together and it will no longer be necessary to write them long letters as to what is acceptable to us in the way of investments.

I will be interested to hear after awhile how much money is left in the estate.

I want to thank you very much for your untiring effort to get the Continental Bank to resign and for the care and wisdom and judgement you showed in handling the situation. Not many people could have brought about such a transfer without any talk of legal proceedings.

Yours very lovingly

Gertrude Bass Warner

Box 1038

March 13, 1933

Mr. Sam B. Warner
Harvard Law School
Cambridge, Mass.

Dear Sam:

Your letter of March 5th, 1933, enclosing a check for five hundred dollars ($500.00) has been received. I thank you very much. I am sending it in this mail to be deposited to my checking account in the First National Bank at Eugene.

On March 5th Mrs. Lyons and I went to Eugene where I had an appointment with Mr. Ripson on the morning of the 7th to go over my income tax papers. Mr. Ripson sent the Massachusetts income tax papers to you, and the federal income tax papers to Mr. Edmonds for Mr. Edmonds signature. I paid half of the Oregon State tax leaving the other half to be paid later on. I did not send any money for either the federal or the Massachusetts income taxes as I did not have any, and I knew it could be taken care of at your end.

I am writing Harry Edmonds authorizing him to return the five hundred dollars to you and also to reimburse you for my federal and Massachusetts income taxes.

I am delighted to hear that you are out of the woods and that at last Harry is my trustee in the place of the Continental Bank so that now you and he can run it together and it will no longer be necessary to write them long letters as to what is acceptable to us in the way of investments.

I will be interested to hear after awhile how much money is left in the estate.

I want to thank you very much for your untiring effort to get the Continental Bank to resign and for the care and wisdom and judgement you showed in handling the situation. Not many people could have brought about such a transfer without any talk of legal proceedings.

Yours very lovingly

Garfield Ross Warner